Crosswalk Studied to Go With Vashell Bus Turnout

A crosswalk at the intersection of Camino Pablo and Brookwood Road was discussed yesterday at noon by representatives of the Orinda Chamber of Commerce, Pacific Gas and Electric Company and State Division of Highways.

The crosswalk is in conjunction with the bus turnout, proposed to be located at the off-ramp at the cloverleaf. It is to be on the tunnel side of the signals coming into Orinda. It would eliminate driving up Brookwood Road through the business area—which is now the bus route.

James R. Lucas, Orinda architect, drew a sketch of the plan which was submitted to the highway commission and public utilities commission.

Two hearings were held in the San Francisco district office. Betz, Brown and Courtwright represented the chamber.

The state set the cost for the turnout at $52,000. Low bidder was the Lee J. Immel Company, San Pablo, at $56,000.

The Walden stop in Walnut Creek was eliminated from the project by the examiner at the request of the chamber. Betz stated that the reason for this was the controversial parking issue.

The highway division sent a representative yesterday to get the layout so the division would know the best place for the

Local 'Fans' to Honor Rigney at January Dinner

A testimonial dinner for Bill Rigney, Los Angeles Angels manager named the American League 1962 Manager of the Year, will be held January 10 in the Walnut Creek Elks Club.

Sponsors for the dinner, the Walnut Creek Chamber of Commerce, the Walnut Creek Recreation Department and the Walnut Creek Youth Association, have invited several of Rigney's baseball colleagues to the dinner, it was announced this week.

It is expected that Rigney, a resident of Walnut Creek for the last 15 years, will be cited for his contributions to local youth athletic programs which won him the title of outstanding citizen of the city in 1959.

Names of honored guests, the master of ceremonies, and details of special activities for the evening will be announced next week, according to the sponsors.

Rigney's career as a major league player, and his career as manager, will be reviewed, the sponsors said.

Tickets for the dinner, priced at $4.50, will be released Monday. Advance reservations may be made by contacting the Walnut Creek Chamber of Commerce.

Rigney lives in Walnut Creek with his wife Paula, sons Bill Jr., 17, Tom, 15 and daughter, 14.

In organized baseball for 25 years, Rigney settled in Walnut Creek while a player for the then New York Giants between 1946 and 1953.

After two seasons with the Giants' Minneapolis farm club, he took over as Giant manager in 1956.

As pilot of the Los Angeles Angels he brought the team to a third place finish in only their second season.

Go-Ahead Given Music-Lecture Hall at Miramonte

A $109,871 music-lecture building for Miramonte High School was given the go-ahead by Acalanes Union High School District trustees this week. Construction contract was awarded to Kirkham, Chaon and Kirkham.

Construction of the building will be completed by the opening of school next fall. District trustees noted that the new music-lecture building will free the Orinda high school's multi-use room from its present use as a music instruction center and leave it open for wider use for physical education instruction purposes.

TRUSTEES ALSO discussed a letter from the executive board of the Miramonte Parents Club asking that school officials survey the physical education "teaching stations" at that high school. The parent group is asking for expanded locker and physical education instruction areas. District trustees noted receipt of the request and expressed their "appreciation for the genuine interest shown in the high school by parents." Trustees stated that they would give the request their "full consideration of construction with their study of the building needs, construction priorities of the high schools of the district and the funds which are available."

Worker Is Crushed by Earthmover

Ground sliding under a huge earthmover in Orinda Monday caused it to overturn and crush to death its operator.

Chester R. Stokes, 56, San Pablo, died shortly after he arrived at Kaiser Foundation Hospital, Walnut Creek.

He had been working a steep slope near the end of Bates Boulevard. As the ground gave way, Stokes jumped and started to run. The vehicle trapped him.

An Orinda Fire Department rescue team brought Stokes up to a waiting ambulance. It rushed him to the hospital. He died about two hours later.

Stokes was employed by the Independent Construction Company of Oakland. He'd been on the job about a week before the accident. It was his first job in many months.

Sandy told her mother she had come home shortly after noon to get a schoolbook.

When the front door was locked, she started for the garage to enter through a door there.

The man held his hand over her mouth and told her to be quiet, but when Sandy sat down, the man kicked her in the chest.

She was found two hours later by her mother.

AN OIL smudge on the girl's blouse showed where the man's foot had struck her. Sandy told her mother she remembered nothing after the kick.

Mrs. Ahola had to shake her daughter to awaken her.

Sheriff deputies said the man was surprised before he entered the house.

A bedroom window screen had been removed, but nothing was missing in the house.

Board Officers to Be Elected at Joint Meet Mon.

Three new directors and one incumbent were elected by the members of the Orinda Association, President Eric Nielsen announced this week.

They are as follows: District 2, James R. Lucas; District 5, A. L. Peterson (incumbent); District 8, Walter Treanor; and District 9, James J. Halloran.

NEW BOARD officers will be elected at a joint meeting of the old board and the new board Monday at 8 p.m. at the Orinda School. The date was moved up so that it would not fall on Christmas Eve.

The Civic Affairs Committee, which usually meets the third Monday, will not convene until January.

James Rector Lucas has his own architectural firm at 61 Moraga Way, Orinda. He and his wife and four children reside at 341 Camino Sobrante. The three Lucas sons and one daughter all attend Orinda schools.

A. L. PETERSON is division manager of Cardox Division of Chemtron. His office is in San Leandro. Mr. and Mrs. Peterson reside at 6 Knickerbocker Lane. Their children are grown. Peterson represented the association on tax matters during his last term.

Walter Treanor is general attorney for the Western Pacific Railroad Company in San Francisco. He and his wife and two children reside at 5 Keith Drive. Their son is an eighth grader at I.V. Intermediate School. Their daughter is a sixth grader at I.V. Elementary.

James J. Halloran is executive vice-president of Electro Engineering Works, San Leandro. The Hallorans reside at 59 Hillcrest. They have three children. Their eldest son attends Boalt Hall, University of California's School of Law, Berkeley. Their daughter is at Miramonte High School. The younger son is at I.V. Intermediate.

THE TERMS of President Eric Nielsen, Arnold Anderson, Peterson and Paul Fanning will expire this year.

Because Orinda is unincorporated and such a distance from the county seat in Martinez, the 1000-member association is considered "the voice of Orinda."

High School Art Teachers Lauded

The Contra Costa Art Association this week applauded the work of high school art teachers John Mack, Richard Keyes and William O'Neill "for their interest and assistance in the work of the association and its activities."

The citation was presented to the Acalanes district high school board for transmittal to the art instructors. Mack teaches art at Miramonte High, Keyes and O'Neill instruct at Acalanes High.

Orinda Stores Open Nights

"For the convenience of the customers of the Orinda area, the majority of Orinda's stores are now open every night, except Saturday and Sunday, until Christmas," according to Ed Amatrone, president of the Orinda Chamber of Commerce.

Hours are 9 a.m. until 9 p.m., weekdays, and 9 a.m. until 6 p.m. Saturdays and Sundays.

Aitchinson Resigns Fire Commission

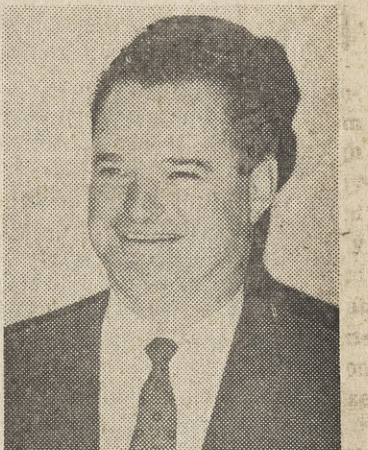

Robert W. Aitchinson recently resigned as Orinda fire commissioner due to pressures of his own business. The county board of supervisors accepted his resignation Tuesday.

The board appointed S. M. Haslett, III to fill out Aitchinson's unexpired term.

Condominium Is Postponed Again

Plans for Duffel-Smoot Companies' $6 million condominium adjacent to Miramonte High School were taken under study Wednesday night by the board of adjustment of the county planning commission. The board stated at the public hearing that it wanted "a few things clarified" before reaching a decision on the request for a land use permit.

Joe Smoot represented the owners, Duffel-Smoot Companies and Jack Snow. He presented architect Larry Freels' plan for the 303-unit condominium.

Dr. Leland Nelson, co-chairman of the civic affairs commission of the Moraga Valley Community Club, raised some questions as to the density and the access road. He questioned the "open area" as shown on the plan.

The condominium will be on the board's agenda December 18 for a decision.

2nd High School In Crystal Ball?

School officials need almost be fortune tellers to foresee where additional school facilities will be needed. However, much more than a crystal ball is needed before determining whether a school will be necessary.

The Acalanes Union High School District has always had a policy of planning sufficiently ahead of pupil growth so that facilities could be purchased and built in time to meet projected needs.

As a part of this continuing policy, the district is now exploring the potential of a sixth high school site in north Orinda, the Dutra ranch which is presently owned by the East Bay Municipal Water District.

Several locations for the district's sixth school site in the north Orinda area have been considered. The Dutra ranch site may be the most feasible of these locations for high school purposes, according to Neil M. Parsons, superintendent of the Acalanes Union High School District.

The possibility of building a sixth high school in the Acalanes District was presented several years ago in a projection of secondary enrollments for this area made by a team of Stanford education research experts.

Current district interest in the Dutra ranch is a followup to this study.

District interest is based on continuing enrollment growth, the decreasing land acreage available each year for a high school campus, and the increase in land values each year as development of the area continues.

"With these factors in mind, prudent action dictates that the high school district initiate studies which may lead to eventual site acquisition," said Parsons.

State owned funds for site acquisition have already been approved by the voters.

Construction of a sixth high school is at least several years off, according to Parsons.

Moonlight & Roses . . .

CRAZY Sunny California! Here it is the middle of winter practically & the garden is all goosed up. Crocuses like crazy 'way ahead of schedule, lilac in bloom, ladybugs abounding . . . & a shocking-pink rose, thanks, ready for the cutting.

We saw Virginia Stafford shopping in shorts, somebody ELSE barefooted, I'm still wearing my thongs instead of the knee-lengths knits . . . & some of the youngsters still stand brave, bare-armed & sweaterless at the morning bus stops. Brrrrr!

MOONLIGHT become us, there's no doubt it and the moon came up over the hills back of La Cuesta the other night like a big fat light bulb. We expected it to suddenly spout a printed commercial like "Heavenly Bulb" or "Universe Lamp" or something but maybe that's because we're very light-conscious these days (what with those tree bulbs to replace) or maybe it's because everything is getting too commercial to suit me. Including Christmas!

Like, let's change the subject or the light bulb & switch to the Soubielles (Commercial for Westinghouse, Henry?), & mention that we lunched with Jan high on her Bel Air hill. While the sun beat down on us, the Harrers' below was a hub of activity w/ring around the reindeer & Santa Claus being set into place in the circle of trees in front of their home.

SUN & MOON, we love you, but you're strictly out of season! So are WE, imagine, doing our Spring Cleaning for Christmas. We can't quite figure it out. Are we behind . . . or AHEAD of schedule?

Yes, as good old Harry Lauder used to sing, "It's a broad bright(?) night tonight . . ." & so it was we trotted off for an evening walk last Sunday after supper. Our destination was dessert (two kinds) at the Bill Hechtman's but the night was bonny & baby loped along like a filly who was ready for a race. There was no need to button up. It was like summer & the boys even talked of taking their sleeping bags to the deck.

ORINDA basked in moonlight & from our vantage point, high in the hills, the town twinkled like a Fairyland . . . Strings of colored lights outlining rooftops . . . Towards Sleepy Hollow, a triangle of gay color told of someone's outdoor tree-trimming.

There were lots of houses, like the Hugh Riegers, where folks (Just Plain Folks?) simply turned the lights ON, having left them up all year, but for others, like the gorgeous outline job right at the top, (eyes right) out Rheem Blvd., it was a labor of love for the Man of the House on his usual day off from the office.

THE WEATHER man can't fool us, though, not when the WORTH'S towering tree rises to its glorious glowing heights at El Toyonal & Canyon Drive. Then YOU KNOW it's Christmas time again! The Worth tree is worth a drive over this way & we've heard more people men say they'd gladly contribute to its lighting bill for like us, they've probably mentally toted up the PGE tab for the tree, when we've noticed that night after night it's there, lit up to give everybody a special big boost.

SUNDAY NIGHT sight: Pianist Peg Winters and violinist Evangeline "Kelly" Honnold packing up their pretty heads & talents & hurrying into Berkeley where they played for The Etude Club's Christmas program, numbers including, among the offerings Bach, Mozart, etc., an original composition by Composer Peg Winters.

More things musical & this IS the season! Tuesday night's crowd of cars climbing the hill to Pine Grove for the annual Christmas sing . . . Some adults who no longer have children in school still attend just for the sake of watching teacher Robert Lauma take off on his flight with "The Partridge in the Pear Tree." . . .

MIRAMONTE'S Music Dept. tuning up for their Thursday night program with an early week rehearsal . . . & here we'll pause for a little station identification.

A toot on my flute . . .

FRIENDS of the Miramonte Orchestra was organized over a year ago for the purpose of getting an orchestra started at Miramonte. That done, the group decided to get on with other Very Important Things. Like giving recognition to the music students, boosting pride and support of the wonderful music department (now 200 plus strong, incl. band, orch. & choral groups), starting scholarship funds to benefit the especially talented musician, also to broaden the interest of the youngsters via group attendance at musical events, etc.

NOW WE ARE looking for a new name. For the moment, The Miramonte Music Club is it. Perhaps you have an idea, several ideas, 10 ideas. If the name you submit is chosen, you can win The Miramonte Orchestra or Band. They'll be at your disposal to play for your club, meeting, birthday party, even background music while easing your current issue of MAD, Rage, Ladies Home Journal. Just come up with a solid suitable name. I'll even toot my flute!

The Miramonte Music Dept. will hold a caroling party Thurs., Dec. 19 meeting at Miramonte, 7:30 for bus to different caroling destinations. Party to follow at the home of Archie Meador.

Incidentally, those wonderful names, yes, yes, you just thought up send them to me or call them in . . . The Music Dept. will judge for winners . . . & who knows? You might not rate Breakfast at Tiffany's but you'll get Symphonies at Breakfast?

HOLD THAT NOTE so we can add that the first meeting of the unnamed Miramonte Music Club, (all adult lovers of music are invited to join will be held in the Miramonte Cafeteria Thursday, Jan. 10, 8 P.M. . . . Never mind the violins, just bring your wife or husband!

If you think Marian Long's been on a telephone talkie-marathon, wrong! Poor gal's line is all loused up & rings busy like mad from morn to midnight. Two days steady now. Proving that the Telephone Company shouldn't count their cables till they've crossed 'em. Fixit man, where ARE you?

The gay apparel's donned . . . Photographer Martin White looking his cheerful self in a fire-engine red shirt . . . Stella Boyle buying dime store goodies & sporting a gorgeous cardinal-red coat.

NOTHING SQUARE about Nan Barich's Village Square duds over which the elegant Fran Dirickx presides. (She's twice as pretty & not so-snooty as the usual Sales Saks-type salesgirl) . . . Gold boxes here piled up on the counter by SOME Mr. Santa Claus . . . & gorgeous baubles made by Mrs. John Anderson of Crestview Drive . . .

HEAVENLY VOICE: Frances Groves Perry, mezzo soprano, will lead the singing of Christmas carols at Eastern Star (Orinda Chapter) holiday dinner next Monday at Masonic Temple . . . Frances, the daughter of Dr. & Mrs. Murray Groves of Camino Encinas, studied abroad, sang with the opera in Heidelberg & Kiel, now lives in Germany w/her husband & is presently visiting her parents here.

Henry Zacharias will avoid the jogging of those last-minute shoppers. While unloading trees for Santa Maria's Dad's Club tree sales last Sunday, Hank broke a couple of ribs. He's back at work now . . . & on the mend.

JINGLING BELLS for Santa Maria's Guild dinner dance NEXT Sat. night at Orinda Country Club, is Chairman Cay Tool, a jewel. She called us to tell who's going & look how many lines it fills up . . .

The Phil Reynolds (Kay's Guild pres.) will gather up a goodly number at one big table—to include the jolly likes of Mary & Bob Rushforth, Tony Ivanetsches, Dave & Betty Young, Gary Nikolais, the newcomer Thomas Pissaras & Ann Cain, too, who'll be well taken care of by her long-time friends in Bill's absence. With a transfer to Denver, he's there, she's here. He'll be home for Christmas & then she'll join him again in Colorado when their home is sold.

Family of the Week

MR. AND MRS. EDWARD BISIAR tell the Christmas story to nine little Bisiars! From left: Edward, 13; Gregory, 1½; Rosemary, 10; Christopher, 11; (front) Kathleen, 7; Melanie, 4, and James, 9. Sun photo by Bob Yost.

Big Busy Brood of Bisiars

THE WEEK before Christmas and the big wonderful brood of Edward and Florence Bisiar of Moraga settle themselves on the sofa for a reading of The Greatest Story . . .

Minutes before, all nine of the Bisiars (pronounced like desires) had brushed off the raindrops as they returned home from Sunday Mass at Church of Santa Maria. Since the couple's first child was born, the whole family has attended church together and are not only punctual, but polished and pretty as well.

IS THERE a busier family than the Bisiars who are expecting still another "stepping stone" member next May? Edward Bisiar, practically a pioneer when he built the family home at 6 Camino Flores, Moraga (before subdivisions grew up around, front and back) met and married his wife while he was doing a six-year stint in the U.S. Navy. Following his discharge, he resumed his education at St. Mary's College and by the time graduation rolled around, there were four children on hand to see dad get his diploma.

He is a science and mathematics teacher at De Anza High School in El Sobrante, also instructor of an education course at St. Mary's and thrice weekly, a teacher of science classes at Santa Maria School. On Saturdays he becomes a student himself, on a research project as recipient of a National Science Foundation grant, exploring the intricacies of modern math.

FLORENCE, a graduate nurse, administers love, discipline and aspirin in that order, having learned her A, B, Cs at Pennsylvania University. In 1945-1948, she traded in her white nursing cap for the blue serge one of a Navy nurse. She gardens "when I can," loves to sew (mostly mending now), does lots of canning and preserving ("grow so many things in our garden") and boasts two outstanding newspaper carriers among her sons, not to mention the forts sturdily fashioned that stand on the Bisiar property. They were hand built by the boys from scrap lumber pieces left over from home construction nearby. "They're always pulling something apart, or putting something together again, but it's good healthy fun for them . . ."

The Bisiar youngsters, oldest to youngest are Edward 13, Chris 11, Rosemarie 10, James nine, Kathleen seven, Melanie four and Gregory, almost two. SOME tribe around a Christmas tree!!

Realty Board Announces Local Officer for '63

Division officers for Orinda were announced recently for 1963 by J. N. Smith, president, Contra Costa Board of Realtors.

William Wiggins with Boies & Soule, was elected chairman; Lee Miller of Peretti Co. Realtors, vice chairman, and Betty Mitchell with Massie & Underwood, secretary.

Wiggins, as chairman, will represent Orinda realtors on the board of directors. Division officers are liaison representatives between members and the 19 member board of directors of the Contra Costa Board of Realtors. They meet quarterly to coordinate policy and conduct business.

Wiggins will be officially installed during annual inaugural ceremonies January 18 at the Diablo Country Club.

Realty Sales Up $9 Million

Real estate sales reported by the Contra Costa Board of Realtors thus far this year are over $9 million dollars higher than those for the same period last year.

Some 2027 sales involving over $42 million were made in the past 11 months, compared to 1752 and almost $34 million at this time in 1961, the board reported this week.

Sales for the month, up 35 from 155 in November 1961, accounted for approximately 10 per cent of the dollar increase in transactions totalling $3,869,740.

The board also announced that as of November 30 it included 198 broker members and 177 salesman members.

Childhood and genius have the same master-organ in common—inquisitiveness.—Edward George Bulwer-Lytton.

Hats Off To...

Dorothy Spott, Director, County Volunteer Bureau

STUFF A STOCKING, please, for Dorothy Spott, executive director of the Volunteer Bureau of Contra Costa County who is currently busy stuffing other people's stockings — helping the needy to a happier holiday through the Christmas Bureau.

"IT'S A CASE of the supply not meeting the demands," says Dorothy, "since we have more than 200 such families needing assistance this year compared to the 87 families given aid last year via food and toy contributions."

"COLLECTIONS through clubs, schools, churches and individuals are still coming in, however, and we're optimistic that Santa will come down the chimney of everyone on our list . . ."

IN THE ST: NICK of time, s-o-s's the Bureau's enthusiastic new director, contributions of canned goods, new toys, gifts for senior citizens and monetary monies to fill meat orders of turkeys or hams are still needed and donations are gratefully accepted daily at The Volunteer Bureau, 2030 N. Main St., Walnut Creek. In case you want to call or need pick up for a donation, their Jingle Bells number is 924-0424.

The pert and pretty native Pasadena graduated from the Univ. of California with a degree in social service, majored in political science, was an active member of the Junior League of Oakland, Inc., for 10 years and has served her own community in many volunteer capacities; Scout and school programs, community drives and Orinda Community Church for whose dedication Dorothy recalls helping to plant (count 'em!) 4500 ivy plants.

"Volunteer work has marvelous therapeutic qualities," Dorothy emphasizes, adding that the Volunteers Bureau's active volunteers this year number 262. "These wonderful men and women help to service the many public and private agencies that benefit broadly from those who give of their skills, time and talent to their communities' needs."

WEARING A garden glove with a green thumb, Dorothy grows a fine garden as well as four fine youngsters who, together with two goats, assorted cats, dogs and birds, live in a handsome rustic home on Brookbank Road out Sleepy Hollow way.

SALLY, now 19, attending San Francisco State, attended Orinda Union School when it was the ONLY school . . . Then there's Robert, 17, who'll be a June grad from Miramonte, Stephen, 13, who'll graduate from Pine Grove Intermediate and Susan, 9, a fourth grader at Sleepy Hollow School.

And that adds up to FOUR volunteers right on the home front!

DVC Displays Venus Probe

A student-built model of the Mariner II, Venus-bound space probe fired from Cape Canaveral August 27, has been placed on display at the Diablo Valley College Science Center Museum.

The model was researched and constructed by Bill Fox, a biology student on the campus and one of several student assistants employed by the museum.

The Mariner itself is expected to pass within 20,000 miles of Venus today, transmitting back to earth information yet unknown about the cloud-veiled planet.

Eventually the probe will fall into the sun and be destroyed. Tomorrow the center expects to display another student project, a life study of yellow-jackets.

Japanese April Calls Orient Tour Travelers

Visions of April in the Orient have kept would-be world travelers busy contacting The Sun or their travel agents for more information about the newspaper's Orient Tour, it was announced today.

Plans for the tour, a 20-day jaunt through Japan, Hong Kong and across the South China Sea, were announced last week.

Deluxe hotel accommodations at every one of several stops throughout the Orient have been arranged.

THOSE WHO accompany hosts Herman and Eleanor Silverman to the Far East will visit Tokyo, Nikko, Atami, Hakone (Fuji), Kyoto, Nara, Osaka and Hong Kong.

Cost of the trip, with air travel by BOAC jets, is $1429. And, for an additional $277, those with greater wanderlust may elect to extend their Orient Holiday to Manila, Singapore and Bangkok.

The Holiday, the Silvermans said this week, will be truly that, a holiday.

While all details have been planned for the tour-members' convenience, the schedule includes generous portions of time for independent exploration of the East.

A VISIT to the Imperial Palace Plaza in Tokyo is the first highlight of the trip following arrival in Japan.

While in Tokyo, tourists will enjoy festive dining and extensive shopping and sightseeing tours.

With Tokyo serving as headquarters, the group will make several trips to nearby shrines.

For many, the Japanese experience will culminate with a stay at a mountain spa beneath Mt. Fuji.

For others, a visit to the Japanese seashore at Atami will be climactic.

AFTER JAPAN—and there are many other side trips there—the tourist will be flown by jet to Hong Kong.

In this international shoppers' mecca he will spend four days browsing and perhaps buying in innumerable shops and touring the ancient city.

A side trip from Hong Kong is planned to take the visitor to the borders of Red China.

If the first three weeks of touring only whets your appetite for travel, the tempting extension trips to Manila, Singapore and Bangkok are available upon request.

The basic 20-day tour begins with departure on April 18 and concludes with arrival back in this country May 7.

Attorney Maps War on Transit

Even if the taxpayers' suit which has temporarily blocked fulfillment of contract agreements between the Rapid Transit District and its engineers is dismissed next Friday, other suits will be filed immediately.

David Birenbaum, attorney for Oakland City Councilman Robert Osborne and three other taxpayers, told The Sun, however, that the district's move for dismissal had no chance.

"We expect a great deal of legal interference from the district," Birenbaum said Wednesday.

"But should we get dumped on legal interference, we will bring new suits."

THE ATTORNEY also pointed out that the Contra Costa Superior Court "dismissal" of various charges Monday in no way affects the status of those charges in the legal battle underway.

Cameramen Hear Of 'Shadowgraph'

Lisle Morseman of Pleasant Hill, manager of the photographic department at Shell Development Company's Emeryville Research Center, addressed the Society of Industrial Photographers at their December meeting Monday.

Suit Stops Pay; Transit Goes on

Although a temporary injunction which prevents payment of the $47 million rapid transit engineering contract was granted four suing taxpayers Monday, the engineers involved are still on the job today—at their own financial risk.

At the same time, the contract challenged in court has been defended by the San Francisco section of the American Society of Civil Engineers.

Bay Area Rapid Transit District President Adrien J. Falk announced Tuesday that the engineers have agreed to proceed with the project despite the ruling of Superior Court Judge Martin E. Rothenberg in Richmond Monday.

"THE ENGINEERING work now under way will not be affected in any way," Falk said. "We are confident that the contract will stand the closest scrutiny as to its provisions and as to the manner in which it was negotiated."

Falk's confidence got a boost from San Francisco civil engineers on Wednesday, when Society President Richard R. Kennedy wrote the district in defense of the contract.

negotiated basis," Kennedy wrote, "is the proper method . . . and is recommended . . . as being in the public interest."

KENNEDY called the use of the same engineering group for preliminary studies and for the design contract "logical."

He also endorsed the flexibility of the contract, methods of payment and the measure of district control provided.

"Our review of the contract indicates a mutual confidence and a degree of trust between the engineers and the client which are essential elements in the . . . project," Kennedy concluded.

ROTHENBERG had ruled that there were sufficient allegations regarding the manner, means and methods in which the contract was made to grant the temporary injunction.

Unless a district move to dismiss the entire suit is granted by Rothenberg on Friday, a hearing that day could lead to pre-trial and trial, according to David E. Birenbaum, attorney for the suing taxpayers.

"And," Birenbaum told The Sun this week, "that dismissal move has about as much chance for success as the proverbial snowball."

WHILE BIRENBAUM, representing Oakland City Councilman Robert Osborne, J. C. Gertsch of San Francisco, El Cerrito Mayor DeWayne Bobblitt and Brentwood rancher Stanley E. Nunn, outlined his continuing legal battle against the district, the district itself announced that the results of the November 6 vote are now official.

In a special meeting, the 11-man district board voted unanimously to accept official certification of results for the three counties.

The total vote, according to election officers in the district, was 438,504 "yes," 277,827 "no."

Falk called the 61.25 per cent yes vote "a clear mandate by the people of the three counties" to construct and operate the system.

The issue required 60 per cent for passage.

Miramonte Mirror

Vacation Cometh Tues.; Miramonteans Rejoice

By KAREN STAFFORD and JACKIE EDENHOLM

Only two more days of school and, then—VACATION—for two weeks. Miramonteans will rejoice, not only because of Christmas, but also because it means no classes, no 7 a.m. rising blues, no tests, no tardies, and no deadlines to meet. Heaven—for two weeks—who could ask for more?

At Healdsburg tonight our basketball team will be playing in a tournament. Even though it is such a long distance from here, and very few will be going, we can still wish the boys luck in their playing—and we do!

Victory, victory is our cry . . . !! Last Friday we played Galileo and won—many rooters were there, but not enough—How about YOU coming to the next game, O.K.?

It could be noted, at the game, that there were very few rooters on the Galileo side, but cheers were heard constantly—Who needs a Pep Band?—They did fin-e-e.

After the game most of the Miramonteans could be seen at the St. Stevens dance—trying to dance—among the many couples. Some of the people there were Gary Rose and Byrname Thraillkill, Randy Lucas and Becky Horne, Steve Parry and Nancy Allen, Chris Romer and Steve Greyhouse, Mary Hansen and Mike Bartlett, Clint De Witt and Barb Brush, Nancy Miller, Jill McCaffry, Greg Sears, John Ronald, Sis Boyle, Larry Tower, and Chris Combs and Chris Barter.

Ken White and Karen Voll spent an evening in the city last weekend which included dinner at Fisherman's Wharf and a show, "Gay Paris," afterward.

For the Christmas holidays Fran Obrecht will spend her time on the beaches of Hawaii while Dave Lackey will be in Mazatlan, Mexico, for three weeks with his family.

It seems that "summer love" has gone out of style and "fall love" is taking its place, ask Janice Eberhart and Randy Lucas, they'll tell you all about it. Also, it seems that Mark Wilcox is carrying a torch for a certain sophomore girl named Chris!

Friday night after the game and dance there was a slumber party at the home of Linda Alm for some of the junior girls. Some of those there were Roena Sherman, Susie Colwell, Chris Walstrom, Ann Cunningham, Ginger Ronald, Joan Dircks, Katy Dullum, Ann Waters, Pam Ferguson, and Carol Mansonen. Why does Joan Quinn ALWAYS get left behind?

Saturday night a few Miramonte students were seen at the Rheem Theater watching "The Miracle Worker."

Enjoying the movie were Chrissy Voll and Ron McCario, and Byrname Thraillkill and Gary Rose. Also at the show, but not watching the movie was Chris Combs. It seems a favorite pastime of Chris' is scaring girls into throwing their popcorn on their dates' heads.

Friday night Chris Campbell and Brad Harlan were seen on campus at the University of California at Berkeley. How do you like fraternity parties, Chris? Brad, who graduated from Miramonte last year, is now attending the University.

Monday was the day of the senior assembly. Everything ran smoothly and I don't think there is any doubt (at least in the minds of the seniors) that the seniors will win the competition for the best assembly. Everyone also agrees that the casting of God, Chris Combs, and the preacher, played by Larry Lahman, was very appropriate. ;

December 18 is the date of the junior prom. The theme is "Misty City." According to the juniors it is going to be the best junior prom Miramonte has ever seen. However, it will really have to be something to excel over last year's junior prom! See you at the Prom!

Volunteers to Move January 1

George E. Chase Is Installed at Masonic Temple

While needed Christmas donations are still being accepted by the Contra Costa Volunteer Bureau at its Main Street office in Walnut Creek, the bureau will move to new quarters on the first day of the new year.

Expansion of activities has necessitated the move, which will be to the Highland Building on Boulevard Circle in Walnut Creek, according to Bureau Director Mrs. Dorothy M. Spott.

Lillian Gaillard Elected Treasurer

Miss Lillian Gaillard, 21 Tara Brook Drive, Orinda, has been elected treasurer of Desk and Derrick Club of San Francisco, an organization of women actively engaged in the petroleum industry.

Miss Gaillard, who has been active in Desk and Derrick for several years, is associated with Shell Development Company in Emeryville.

Festival de las Posadas To Be Held Thursday

Festival de las Posadas will take place Thursday from 8 to 9 p.m. at the Orinda Crossroads. In the event of rain, the festival will be held at the same hour in Pine Grove School's auditorium. The public is invited.

Approximately 900 Girl Scouts in three neighborhoods have participated in making ornaments, trimming the tub trees in the Village and Crossroads.

THE ORINDA Woman's Club Christmas decorations committee, under the direction of Mrs. Charles Baumann, has also been arranging for the festival.

The Orinda Junior Chamber of Commerce decorated the bus shelter with a serape-garbed Santa.

Merchants of Orinda and the service clubs are cooperating in an all-out effort to make the second Festival de las Posadas a success.

The Orinda Art Center will decorate the large tree at the Crossroads, along with the Nativity scene.

EAST BAY Municipal Utility District furnished a living tree for the Village, to be decorated by the Orinda Woman's Club.

C. P. Tanner, representing EBMUD, made the tree available so that it can be planted after the celebration for use in successive years.

Girl Scout troops participating in Orinda's second Festival de las Posadas are: Orinda Village Neighborhood — Troop 22, Mrs. Edward Johannessen, leader, chairman; Troop 257, Mrs. Craig Bull, leader; Troop 265, Mrs. Victor Smith, leader; Troop 234, Mrs. Elliott Rose, leader; Troop 348, Mrs. Ralph Stevens, leader.

MORINDA Neighborhood—Troop 342, Mrs. Foss, leader; Troop 278, Mrs. Kelley, leader; Troop 71, Mrs. Perdue, leader; Troop 3, Mrs. deMann leader.

MIRALINDA Neighborhood — Troop 228, Mrs. Edwin Paille, leader; Troop 318, Mrs. W. R. Schreiner, leader.

THE GIRL SCOUTS will sing and walk in pairs in the street which will be cleared of traffic and patrolled.

The area the girls will cover will be from Black's Market to the tree at the Crossroads.

Once at the tree, the girls will form a semi-circle where the Nativity scene, which they have been carrying, will be placed at the foot of the tree. The girls will sing five Christmas carols.

Las Posadas is the name given to the traditional way of celebrating Christmas in the villages and homes of Mexico. Las Posadas represent the several inns at which Joseph begged shelter for Mary.

BEGINNING ON the 16th of December, the villagers dramatize the search for shelter, and each evening of the nine days before Christmas a couple dressed to represent Joseph and Mary, or carrying figures of Joseph and Mary, and a group of villagers pretending they are pilgrims, go from house to house begging shelter.

Finally, the master of one of the homes invites Mary and Joseph and all the pilgrims to enter and see the family Nacimiento, and to join the family in refreshments and dancing. At the end of the evening's fun, the breaking of the pinata takes place.

LUCKY IS the person who breaks it, for it is full of sweetmeats and everyone enjoys the scramble when the shower of goodies falls from the gaily decorated pinata. Then it is time for everyone to go home, looking forward to the next evening's posada which will be held at another house in the village. Or Christmas Eve the final posada is celebrated.

At midnight the Baby Jesus, el Nino Jesus, is placed in the cradle which has been waiting for Him in the Nacimiento, the manger scene, found in Mexican homes at Christmas time.

Names of Girl Scouts participating in the festival include:

Jr. Choir to Carol at Fairyland

GOLDILOCKS IS A SOPRANO! Orinda's Judy Allen, 10-year-old storybook favorite in Children's Fairyland, will be singing with the Orinda Community Church's Junior Choir in special Christmas program at Fairyland Thursday, December 20.

When the 70-voice Junior Choir of Orinda Community Church ducks through the Old Woman's Shoe to sing a Christmas program in Children's Fairyland, Oakland, on Thursday, December 20, one of the sopranos may have a hard time remembering to be as decorous as the occasion demands.

Ten-year-old Judy Allen of 118 Seaside Drive, Orinda, is better known as Goldilocks in "the dream of every child come true."

With her toy bear, "Fuzzy," tucked under her arm, and long blond locks flying behind her, the skippy little charmer has spent many weekends and vacation days in helping to create a world of enchantment for visitors from all over the globe.

LAST YEAR she served in a more dignified capacity, as Queen of Fairyland during its 11th year.

Judy and her younger sister, Barbara, 8, are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Norwood Allen. They attend Glorietta School. Barbara has the role of "The Littlest Elf" at Fairyland.

Thursday, Judy will be just one of a large group of sopranos watching for the beat from their choir director, Mrs. Nanna Hartsell. They and the altos—all 4th, 5th and 6th graders at the church—will be presenting a varied program of yuletide selection on the Merry Meadow at 2:30 p.m.

To be sung partially in harmonized arrangements and partially in "O Come, All Ye Faithful," "Good Christian Men, Rejoice," "Hear the Glad Tidings," "O Little Town of Bethlehem," "Silent Night," "Away in a Manger," "Mary's Lullaby," "Jingle Bells" and "We Wish You a Merry Christmas."

OFFICERS of the choir are Linda Hill, 144 Overhill Road, president; Gudrun Lorenson, 9 Broadview Terrace, vice president; Engel Ford, 36 El Toyonal, secretary, and Donna Holland, 7 Ardilla Road, and Donna Stoy, 8 Vallecito Lane, social chairmen.

The program is a feature of holiday festivities in Fairyland, according to its director, Mrs. Betty Robinson. Santa will be on hand each day from Wednesday through Monday the 24th, following his grand arrival on the Lakeside Lark on Sunday, December 16.

And Mrs. Santa will be set up in a special kitchen each day in the Little Pumpkin, where she'll turn out batches of gift cookies for the youngsters.

OTHER CHOIRS will also sing from time to time and Ellen Venton will play four holiday recitals on the child-size pipe organ in the Children's Chapel of Peace—on December 19, 21, 23 and 24, at 2:30 p.m.

Fritz Van Mastrigt, Jim Williams, Dorina Clark, Connie Coleman, Karin Deming, Denise Hill, Jane Hillis, Maddy Lewis, Diane Mainwaring, Janet Moe, Joy Nelson, Nancy Rieser, Carol Runo, Gretchen Schaefer, Sharon Thomas-Stahle and Joyce Van Dyke.

REGULARLY open Wednesday through Sunday during the school term, Fairyland will be open on a vacation schedule beginning with Wednesday, December 19, and continuing through New Year's Day.

Supervisors End Discussions on Salary Raises

County employees are generally well-paid, was the conclusion of the Contra Costa County Taxpayers Association presented by its secretary, Paul Hughey to the Board of Supervisors Tuesday.

Evidence of this, said Hughey, is the low turnover rate.

His report wound up discussions on the possible increase of salaries for some county employees. Inequities, if found, should be ironed out, he said, but the total effect on the budget of a mid-year salary increase should be made clear to the public, he added.

NO ACTION on possible changes was taken by the board, who took the whole matter under advisement.

In other action, the board took final steps to put the entire city of Pleasant Hill under one fire district.

Supervisors quickly approved the annexation of the northern part of the city to the Central County Fire Protection District. The city had previously withdrawn this portion from the Mt. Diablo District.

In another Pleasant Hill matter, a letter from that city's public works director, James Orput, requested the board to review the matter of property damage incurred by Vernon Olson, 530 Shelly Drive, Pleasant Hill, Orput asked the county to participate in repair costs. The matter, at Supervisor Tom Coll's suggestion, was put on the public works agenda for Tuesday.

THE EXTENSION of the closure of El Toyonal Road in Orinda from December 7 through January 4, as requested by the public works department, was authorized.

A budget item of $17,800 for engineering studies of the planned widening of Kierker Pass to four lanes was approved.

The use of compact cars by the county has apparently resulted in a drop in costs per mile, according to a report on operating costs of county cars presented by R. D. Broach, business and services manager of the public works department.

Supervisors named a committee to study automation procedures in the elections office.

Crash Injures CHP Officer

Eugene L. Cleu, Jr., 27, of Lafayette, a California Highway Patrol officer, was injured this week when his motorcycle collided with a pickup truck in Martinez.

Cleu suffered cuts and abrasions in the accident.

The truck driver was cited for violation of the right-of-way when he turned into traffic and Cleu was unable to avoid him.

Cleu was thrown from his motorcycle in the mishap. He was taken to a Martinez hospital by ambulance.

The accident congested rush hour traffic on Alhambra Avenue.

Cleu lives at 3320 Helen Lane.

GUESTS OF THE COURT (on left and right), Walnut Creek Police Chief Leigh Brilliant and Traffic Control Officer Betsy Fitzgerald were on hand to congratulate Judge Betsy Fitzgerald Rahn, whose traffic court was honored Monday. The court serves the mid-county area, and is second in volume only to the Richmond traffic court.

Judge Rahn's Traffic Court Honored by Bar

By WALT WRIGHT

Some 40 persons accused of traffic violations rose as Judge Betsy Fitzgerald Rahn entered her Traffic Court in Walnut Creek.

They did not know that their customary gesture of respect had double meaning that Monday morning.

The judge announced, in her preliminary remarks, that her court was one of two in California and 1230 in the nation honored, as the plaque says, "for outstanding progress in the improvement of traffic court practices and procedures during 1961-1962."

The award had been made minutes earlier by the American Bar Association, whose Roy A. Bronson presented Judge Rahn with a plaque in her chambers.

"I'M HAPPY that we have received the award," the judge told her "audience."

"But this happiness is tinged with something else," she continued, and indicated that "safety is not a one time thing" which can be summed up in a single award.

Bronson, who is vice-chairman of the Bar Association's Standing Committee on the Traffic Court Program, had pointed out the importance of education in reducing traffic violations and accidents.

"WE ARE approaching the holiday season, during which perhaps 500 persons will be killed."

"You may be one of them," she said bluntly.

"Whether you are or not depends on you."

"Most accidents," the judge explained, "involve violations. 'If you violate the law and do not have an accident, you are simply lucky. And persons who deal in luck know that it won't last forever.'"

"MAY I wish that you survive the holiday . . . and have a very happy one."

The audience, perhaps thinking that many of their number were "simply lucky" to be alive, was silent.

The first defendant was called, and the day of pleas and sentences began.

During the brief ceremony which preceded the court session, Bronson told assembled guests of the court that the Bar Association considered the traffic court the most important court in the country.

"THIS IS because," Bronson said, "in these courts, where seven million persons appear annually, most citizens gain first knowledge of the judicial arm of government."

The courts have come a long way from the days when they were used primarily to fill the cities' coffers, Bronson said.

The type of enforcement in courts such as Judge Rahn's, he indicated, breeds a respect for the law and has decreased "the slaughter on the highways."

Among those present at the ceremony were County District Attorney John Nejedly, Captain Frank Jelich of the California Highway Patrol, Walnut Creek Police Chief Leigh Brilliant and Walnut Creek Councilman Francis Driscoll.

VD up 30% in County

Some 826 cases of venereal disease in Contra Costa County have been reported since the beginning of this year. The trend of present figures indicates that such cases will number well over 900 before the year is out.

And the County Health Department has stepped up efforts to cope with the problem.

According to department reports, the incidence of venereal disease has increased markedly over the previous year. By the end of November last year, only 625 cases had been reported.

THE INCREASE, the reports indicate, has been in cases of syphilis as well as gonorrhea, although the first disease has shown a decline during the last two months.

Persons reported treated for gonorrhea during the first 11 months of 1962 numbered 557, compared to 492 in the same period last year.

During the last two months, 145 persons were treated for gonorrhea, more than twice the 64 treated in the same period last year.

Syphilis cases at this time last year numbered 219. So far this year 269 have been reported.

In October and November, however, there were only 37 cases of syphilis reported, compared to 65 in the same two months last year.

THE FIGURES indicate no change in the general nationwide and county-wide increase in venereal disease since 1955.

"Following World War II there was a decline in reported venereal disease," the County Health Department explained this week in their annual report on the department and its services.

The decline was attributed primarily to an increased post-war stability in the population, the report said.

"Since 1955, in spite of our modern miracle drugs, there has been a sharp increase in reported venereal disease nationwide as well as in our county."

"Increasing social unrest, general mobility, public apathy and possibly increased promiscuity are assumed to be contributing factors."

"SOME OF the medical profession's current low level of concern about syphilis and gonorrhea contribute to the problem by frequent incomplete diagnosis, incomplete treatment or incomplete reporting of cases," the report charged.

The department "has been reorganizing and attempting to expand its venereal disease control activities to keep up with the increase in cases," it was announced.

"The board social and medical implications of the continuing increase has caused the U. S. Public Health Service to begin an all-out 10-year program to eradicate syphilis from this country," the county said.

Coordination of the local program with the nation-wide attack on syphilis is being sought.

SYPHILIS has apparently been singled out by the federal health service because the complications it creates are more severe than those created by gonorrhea.

"Each year," the county reports, "it costs Americans $46 million to hospitalize syphilitic insane."

Another $12 million is spent to assist persons blinded by syphilis. Syphilis ranks second only to tuberculosis as an infectious cause of death, the report said.

And, the county added, "the hardship and heartache which are caused by the complications of syphilis cannot be expressed in terms of dollars."

BECAUSE OF the way in which venereal diseases are transmitted, the county reports difficulty in obtaining information about contacts of a case—who are also potentially infected.

The health department's job in controlling the disease "is to determine if all necessary steps have been taken to protect the public's health."

"This means checking to see that each case is promptly and adequately treated and that each and every exposed person is located and protected," the report said.

TO CUT DOWN and hopefully eradicate syphilis and gonorrhea, the county is arranging to receive and process additional laboratory reporting now required by a new state regulation.

Representatives of the county department are contacting physicians to reacquaint them with public health aspects of the problem.

Methods of reporting the disease, according to the department, have been improved.

Venereal disease clinics will be expanded as case loads increase.

"The magnitude and control" of the county's venereal disease problems, however, "cannot be determined until we achieve 100 per cent reporting by physicians of all venereal disease," the report added.

And, said the county, "more work is needed in the education of the general public—particularly the age groups most susceptible to venereal disease."

Two Lafayette Firms, Country Club Robbed

Two Lafayette business firms, the Carroll Country Club and an Alamo coin washing machine store were victims of robberies this week, according to reports from the sheriff's deputies.

A total of $750 in cash, liquor, clothing and Christmas gifts were stolen from the Harold Parker firm at 3520 Golden Gate Way. Entry was made through a store room window, deputies said.

A filing cabinet in the office of the Lemont Corporation, 3513 Mt. Diablo Boulevard, was ransacked and $140 was taken. The intruder entered the building via a rear door.

A large assortment of golf clubs were reported missing from the Carroll Country Club in Moraga last weekend.

Moraga Memo

By JANE PUTNAM

Santa's Sleigh Is Jet-Propelled

By JANE PUTNAM

SANTA ISN'T coming on his whirly-bird to our valley—he's traveling via jet.

Have you ever known the holidays to overtake us with such speed? Moragans are going all out with outdoor decorations. The usually dark streets are aglow with necklaces of colored lights. It would be nice to keep them up all year — just as it would be nice to keep aglow the spirit of Christmas all year—

DONALD DRIVE is abuzz with Christmas festivities. Sunday, Tom and Ellen Peek will give a cocktail party at their home, corner of Carroll and Donald. It will be a "hail and farewell" affair, as they'll be leaving after the first of the year for southern California where Tom is a top exec with Prudential. When they leave, Tom & Ellen and the seven little Peeks will understandably leave quite a gap in the neighborhood.

Last night, Ellen was one of a quartet of hostesses to give a bridal shower for beautiful bride-elect Peggy Rothermel. Other hostesses were Bernice Gluck, Fran Swanson and Audry Killian. The 8 p.m. affair was at Killian's, 132 Donald Drive. Among those attending were Jean Blackmur, Lois Nelson, Helen Brown and her mother, Mrs. Anderson. The latter two are newcomers to Donald. Peggy is the eldest of Buddy and Jack Rothermel's three progeny. The Rothermel home is for sale, as Jack's General Mills' office has been moved to Palo Alto. The family will move to the peninsula to save Dad the long, long, long commute.

NEWSY NAMES. Mrs. William Finlen of Moraga handled reservations for the Kappa Kappa Gamma Alumnae's annual Christmas party. The cocktail party and buffet dinner was in Piedmont.

Elmo A. Mazzera, 2 Donald Place, Moraga, was named Alameda County campaign chairman for the 1963 United Crusade drive.

At Marini's restaurant in Rheem this noon, local heads of the March of Dimes drive will lay their plan of attack, which will be during the month of January. Local chairman is Anita Marini. Dignitaries from the county will attend as well as St. Mary's College coordinator of development, Richard Pauleich. If you would like to volunteer your services for this worthwhile March in January, call Mrs. Marini.

Also call her, if you'd like reservations for a good dinner and fun fashion show on maid's night out. (Now don't act like you didn't know it was Thursday.)

CARROLL CALENDAR. All members of Carroll Country Club and their families are dropping in for an Open House tomorrow. . . . Reservations are being taken by Freddy Onisko at 254-0773 for a New Year's Eve party at the clubhouse. . . . February 9 will be the date for the first 1963 Club party. . . . December bridge evenings are the 14th and 28th at 8:30 p.m. Players may attend the informal bridge get-togethers whenever they wish, and need not attend the whole shooting-match.

SCHOOL'S OUT today and since Christmas is for children, let us plan happy times. Let us take the little ones caroling—what better reward than to see their bright smiles in the brisk night? Let us take the darlings to Toyland—what greater joy than to be shot by radar from a plump, dimpled trigger finger? And as long as you're going, would you mind taking my adorable five-year-old son? I'm exhausted!

TREE TIME is all around us; but glorioski! What more heart-warming sight is there than the forest of baby Pine trees planted around Campolindo High School? Reminds me of something a teacher wrote in my autograph book at Crocker Highlands Elementary: "Grow like the trees—ever upward."

And over at the Moraga Barn, the old string of burned-out globes is being replaced by Master Chef Art Fleuti. Instead of taking the lights down after Christmas, he lets them burn until every last light goes out—sometime mid-summer. Why not have Barnites guess the date and time when the last light burns out—sorta like the way they do when the ice breaks in Alaska? Why not?

Orinda Firm Awarded Alamo Culvert Contract

A contract for construction of a culvert across Miranda Avenue near Alamo, to Robert R. Murdoch of Orinda, who submitted a bid of $7777, the lowest of seven bids, was awarded by the County Board of Supervisors on Tuesday. The estimated construction cost was $7500.

A double five-foot by four-foot reinforced concrete box culvert 50-feet in length will replace the two 30-inch corrugated metal pipe culverts which are approximately one-fourth of a mile north of Stone Valley Road in Alamo.

"The culvert is being constructed as part of the county's continuing effort to keep pace with area development," said Supervisor Mel Nielson. "With subdivision work now in progress and more road and home expansion to follow, the county considered it advisable to replace the present culverts with a larger and more efficient structure," he added.

THE PRESENT culverts do not permit debris to pass through readily and occasionally the inlets are blocked causing the storm water to overflow the roadway. The new structure will minimize possible flooding.

Additional right of way was acquired by the county in order to construct the culvert to the future roadway width and provide for sidewalks for pedestrian traffic to and from Stone Valley School.

Traffic will be allowed to pass through the construction area at all times. This will be accomplished by constructing one-half of the culvert at a time, leaving a one-lane roadway open to traffic.

Construction will begin in approximately two weeks, and the contractor should complete the project about March 11, 1963, weather conditions permitting.

Construction work will be inspected by the Public Works Department, Victor W. Sauer, director.

MARINI'S RESTAURANT in Rheem will be the gathering place today at noon to discuss preliminary plans for the March of Dimes, to begin after the first of the year. Mrs. Charles Marini, chairman for the Moraga area, goes over some details with Jerry Bassett, county director for March of Dimes.

NOTHING IS SACRED when it comes to flood control on El Toyonal. Damming the creek and putting in the new culvert at the intersection of El Rincon and El Toyonal calls for toppling some trees. This county public works department man shows a unique method of tree-cutting.

Mazzera to Head Drive

Elmo A. Mazzera of Moraga was named Alameda County campaign chairman for the 1963 United Crusade drive at the annual meeting of the Alameda County United Crusade Fund recently.

ELMO A. MAZZERA

Kendric B. Moorish of Orinda, a crusade volunteer since 1953, was elected ACUF treasurer.

Other Orinda people with key posts in the Alameda County United Fund are Barrett B. Klopfer, who was re-elected to the executive committee; and the following, who are members of the board of governors: Douglas S. Aiken, Stuart Davis, Peter D. Kristich, Robert McLaughlin and William Penn Mott, Jr.

Frederick L. Greenlee, chairman for the 1962 appeal in Alameda County, said this campaign is expected to reach $1,820,830—97.7 per cent of goal. Although better than last year, it is $43,000 short of the 1962 goal, Greenlee said.

Puppet Show To Entertain Co. Ward

"Christmas giving" will become a reality for a number of talented and thoughtful Girl Scouts from Orinda and Danville. These two troops of fifth and sixth grade scouts will present a puppet show and Christmas party for the children's ward at the County Hospital in Martinez on December 21.

Under the leadership of Mrs. W. E. Thompson and Mrs. Walter Schreiner, Girl Scout Troop 318 from Orinda has created its own puppets and written the play for a puppet show, based upon the Dr. Seuss story of "The Grinch Who Stole Christmas". The Volunteer Bureau of Contra Costa County in Walnut Creek arranged for another Girl Scout Troop from Danville, Troop 143, led by Mrs. Ralph Boshion, to join them in providing refreshments and carol singing.

The Volunteer Bureau, which assists groups and individuals who are interested in visiting shut-ins, young or old, reminds the community that volunteered programs and activities are appreciated throughout the year.

Persons who are interested in expressing their goodwill are urged to contact the Volunteer Bureau for project suggestions.

Christmas Music Show at Fairview

Fairview Intermediate School will hold its fifth annual Christmas program Monday at 8 p.m.

In the spacious auditorium the Fairview Glee Club and the band will present a varied musical program. Participation in both groups is on an elective basis.

Mrs. June Young is in charge of the glee club and Mrs. Arlene Fox is leading the band. The band will play eight numbers, including, "Ring, Christmas Bells," "Twelve Days of Christmas" and "Hallelujah."

The jazz band will play, "Santa Claus is Coming to Town," "White Christmas" and "Jingle Bells."

The glee club will sing carols familiar as well as some unfamiliar to our ears. Some songs will be done by small groups while others will be performed by the entire chorus. Some of the carols to be heard are: "Peace on Earth," "Silver Bells," "I Heard the Bells on Christmas Day."

There will be a community sing with the audience joining in the singing of some of the old familiar carols.

The program will end with the band and the glee club performing the familiar, "Christmas Song."

Book Fair at Fairview Nets Library $120

Fairview's fifth annual Book Fair completed a successful run recently.

More than 250 books were sold. The school library netted $120 as a result of the sale.

Alfred Hitchcock stories proved to be the best sellers, according to Mrs. Cady, school librarian.

The books were furnished by the Seven Arts Book Store. There were 300 displayed during the fair.

Mrs. Edwin Floyd was in charge of the fair and Mrs. Richard Maloney supplied and served refreshments to fair visitors.

O Lord, who lends me life, lend me a heart replete with thankfulness.

Rheem Freeway Signs Give Area 'Status'

"Is there really a Rheem?" Like a similar, legendary question, this one has a right to be answered.

It has provoked considerable discussion for many years although it is no longer a "burning issue."

And for those who wondered if "Rheem" was ever to gain the community status of a Moraga, Orinda, Lafayette, Alamo or Danville, the question, for the most part, was answered by the State Division of Highways.

Two weeks ago maintenance crews from the California State Automobile Association began assembling a large, green sign along the westbound lanes of the state freeway just east of the Pleasant Hill Road off-ramp (see picture).

MOTORISTS TRAVELING to Berkeley, Oakland and San Francisco now know there is a Rheem (and St. Mary's College, too) as they speed by.

The new sign informs: "Rheem, St. Mary's College, next right."

Moraga Road and down to St. Mary's Road where county signs take over (see picture).

COMING FROM the west, motorists wanting to find Rheem or St. Mary's College will find an arrow pointing right at the end of the Orinda off-ramp directing them down Moraga Way. County signs (white in color) take over at Glorietta.

Many people have become confused with the signs. The Sun learned, while others don't think Rheem deserves such a predominant mention on the state freeway system.

According to Ray Head, assistant traffic engineer for the state division of highways, he personally investigated the situation and upon his recommendation the signs were issued.

Head said "the men responsible for developing Rheem simply called us and suggested the possibility of signs on the freeway."

Head said his investigation followed.

Apparently, St. Mary's College was added to the sign "because two names were better than one."

HEAD SAID THEY had received no requests from St. Mary's College for a sign on the freeway.

Head's investigation showed a sign for Rheem was "worthwhile" and an Orinda, Moraga overhead sign.

Although Pleasant Hill Road is a long way from the center of Rheem (Rheem Center), motorists heading home for the central county area know where to get off for "Rheem and St. Mary's College."

This sign was installed just before the Orinda off-ramp. It is exiting at the off-ramp are directed by other state signs (green in color) which lead them down Mt. Diablo Boulevard to Moraga Road, left at

There's Christmas Cash Hidden in Your Home

Do you have extra Christmas shopping money hidden away in your closets, attic and garage? Many central county families found that they did, and are now boosting their Christmas budget with cash from sales of toys and gift items their children have outgrown.

According to Sun Classified ad manager Charles Fahrney, several families have reported that Sun want ad sales brought them ready cash for this year's shopping.

Year after year, readers of the 58,000-circulation Sun Shopping News and the four Sun subscription newspapers snap up Christmas gift items advertised in the classified columns, Fahrney said.

"Outgrown bikes, tricycles and other wheel toys are always good items," he said.

But it's not just toys that sell rapidly in The Sun around Christmas time.

Gift possibilities for persons of all ages produce many of the familiar Sun "success stories" during the holiday season, Fahrney explained.

To boost your Christmas shopping budget, call a Sun advertiser today at 934-5000 or 284-4444.

THIS IS WHERE "Rheem" began just a few years ago. The Rheem Center was a shopping area built in what-was-then a near-wilderness. Now a large expansion has been planned and the many apartments and homes going up on 1500 acres owned by Donald L. Rheem around the center are included in the "Rheem Valley" or just plain "Rheem."

while and would provide a traffic service for both Rheem and the college."

The Sun was told that the most common method of determining the "need" for a sign is the establishment of a post office in an area.

"Both Rheem and St. Mary's College have their own post offices," Head pointed out.

The Rheem post office has no delivery service.

Unless you have a post office box in the Rheem post office, you must have a Moraga address.

However, the Rheem station is independent of the Moraga Post Office—and not a sub-station.

Pleasant Hill, with a population of approximately 27,000 people, does not have its own post office. The Pleasant Hill station is merely a sub-station of the Concord post office.

The "Rheem, St. Mary's" station is a "community" station, Kermit said.

"If an institution grants a degree, we put up a sign," Kermit said.

"We have signs for St. Mary's College; but not for Diablo Valley College for this reason," Kermit said.

Local Link in New Water System Nears Completion

Lafayette Aqueduct Is Now 92 Percent Complete

By GEORGE COLBURN

Lafayette's $5-million link in a $68-million new water system for East Bay Municipal Utility District is 92 percent complete.

And although it could have been a lot worse, there will be signs of relief from many folks when the American Pipe Company completes its job.

The reason for building a new pipeline from EBMUD's Pardee Reservoir (38 miles northeast of Stockton) is quite basic—EBMUD's is not capable of supplying enough water per day for its consumers at the present.

There's no critical shortage, but the district's present system has a capacity of 157 million gallons of water daily.

PEOPLE WITHIN the district are consuming an average of 162 million gallons daily—so EBMUD needs the new system; it's that simple.

However, the district has no problem supplying its people—there's a 90-day supply in the local reservoirs (there are four—San Pablo, Lafayette, Upper San Leandro and Chabot).

The new "Giant M" system is designed to supply the district with an additional 181 million gallons of "pure mountain water" from the Mokelumne River daily (the river supplies Pardee Reservoir).

The system gets its "Giant M" name from the size of the pipeline—and, of course, the Mokelumne River is the "M."

THE PIPES (see photo) in the local link are nine feet in diameter, 16 feet long, weigh 39 tons—or 78,000 pounds.

Starting in December of 1960 on the Lafayette link, 17,566 of these 39-ton sections have been laid starting at EBMUD's Walnut Creek pumping plant.

Two tunnels (Walnut Creek No. 2 and Acalanes) carry the link through the hills and across Acalanes Valley to a point just north of the freeway near Hodges Road.

The pipeline route crosses the freeway via a tunnel at Brown Avenue and continues for three miles along the EBMUD right-of-way north of Mt. Diablo Boulevard to the Lafayette interchange near Pine Lane.

There it goes under the freeway overpass and connects with Lafayette Tunnel No. 2. There are road crossings at Oak Hill Road, Dolores Drive and Risa Road.

Acalanes tunnel is 1700 feet long. THE LINK, which ends at the Red Mill, has a total of 18,726 sections. Last week, American Pipe put in place 281 feet—or 17 pieces.

There are 1160 sections to go and then the Lafayette link is finished.

The 100-mile project was started in the summer of 1959. This was one year before the demand for water exceeded EBMUD average to provide.

EBMUD is paying out $68 million for the system—but the commission is not.

lined capacity of the three pipelines is 338 million gallons of water daily, expected to take care of this area the district's water needs for the foreseeable future.

American Pipe is actually constructing Lafayette Aqueduct No. 2 to take care of the water being supplied by the third pipeline from Pardee.

The first two pipelines feed into Lafayette Aqueduct No. 1. THE THIRD pipeline is almost as big as the aqueduct—87 inches in diameter.

The Lafayette Aqueduct starts at the Walnut Creek pumping plant, at a point west of Larkey Lane and extends to a point near Sunnybrook Drive.

The official end of the aqueduct is at the east portal of Lafayette Tunnel No. 2 which is being constructed starting at Pine Lane east of the Red Mill. The tunnel will carry the water under the hills to Orinda.

Tunnel No. 1, of course, carries the water from the first aqueduct through the hills to Orinda.

The water in the third pipeline completely bypasses the Walnut Creek pumping plant and goes into the Lafayette aqueduct.

The water is then carried to the Lafayette filter plant (to be used here) or on into the Orinda filter plant (Oakland, Berkeley) through Tunnel No. 2.

When Briones Reservoir and dam is completed some of the water will be sent there.

ALSO, WATER that reaches Orinda can be sent to the Upper San Leandro and San Pablo reservoirs.

On the site of the Lafayette filter plant, a new control works is planned in the next two or three years to modernize the operation of the three pipelines, two aqueducts and two tunnels.

Tunnel No. 2 is 3.03 miles long and is costing EBMUD $5½ million.

Actual tunneling has ceased now—and the job of lining the nine-foot "hole" is already (the bottom half) finished.

The No. 2 tunnel is expected to be finished in March.

A little later, EBMUD officials will turn a valve at Pardee to open the district's new water system.

EBMUD OFFICIALS explain that the new system "will not only handle more water and do a better job of it, but the 'Giant M' eliminates any chance of a water shortage."

If something happened to the original system (the first pipelines were completed in 1929; the second in 1949), district residents would have to be content with water from the local reservoirs instead of that good, mountain water—as the pipelines would have to be shut down, officials point out.

It's never happened—even for a day—but now there's not even a chance.

Population in Water District Has Doubled

It's easy to understand why EBMUD now must supply more water than it ever did—there are more people within the district boundaries.

The first pipeline and aqueduct was opened in 1929—six years after the district was formed by a vote of the people and five years after the district's first bond passed.

In 1949 the second pipeline went in. Both pipelines were able to feed into the single aqueduct, however.

At the present, there are 279,000 customers or meters within the district which covers 245 square miles in Alameda and Contra Costa counties. Officials estimate that they supply 1,200,000 people.

While district boundaries have not changed much over the years, there has been a 106 percent increase in the population within the district.

THE AVERAGE consumption in 1940 was 42 million gallons daily.

Compared to the 162 million gallons consumed on an average in 1961, this is a 281 percent increase.

The Pardee Reservoir has been and is the only source of water for the district. Supplied by the Mokelumne River, the reservoir has a surface area of 2200 acres and there are 68 billion gallons of water within. This is equal to 427 days water supply for the district now.

Of the four local reservoirs (which combined have a 90-day water supply for the district) San Pablo is the largest with 14 billion gallons.

Business Dropped 50% At Motel in Past Year

Probably the happiest person to see American Pipe Company complete its work on the EBMUD link in Lafayette will be Richard Mossman, owner and operator of the Hillside Motel, 3738 Mt. Diablo Boulevard.

Mossman told The Sun that "he didn't believe it would ever be completed." He said work started in front of his motel in November of 1961 and he had assumed that the "mess" would last only three months after talking with EBMUD officials. However, the "mess" is still there.

As far as his business is concerned, Mossman told The Sun that it has now fallen off 50 percent according to figures he had prior to the start of construction.

Mossman pointed out that the two bridges leading to the motel had been washed out and now customers had to use temporary entrance on the east side of the

Optometrists Plan Holiday Installation

Installation of 1963 officers and the third annual Christmas party program of the Alameda-Contra Costa Counties Optometric Society will be held at Edgewater Inn, Oakland, Tuesday night, Society President Dr. Harvey Arnold has announced.

Society officers to be installed are: President, Dr. Marvin Poston; president-elect, Dr. Raymond Kan; secretary-treasurer, Dr. Charles A. Conrad; director of education, Dr. Gerald Trumbly; director of legislation, Dr. Raymond Eng, all of Oakland.

Director of ethics and vigilance is Dr. Ross Griffin, Concord, and director of organization, Dr. George Hurd, Walnut Creek. Dr. Bernard Garrett, Alameda, president of the California Optometric Association, will be the installing officer.

Sandra Barton, San Francisco night club personality, will entertain.

The program will include dinner dancing. A social hour, starting at 7 p.m., will precede the dinner and entertainment program.

Dr. Elliott Kapchan, arrangements committee chairman, announced that the meeting will be open to optometrists and their wives, guests of society members, and office assistants.

Special invitations have been extended to students at the University of California School of Optometry.

motel—which is on somebody else's property.

MOSSMAN SAID "although I had given up hope that they'd ever finish, I keep reminding myself that a lot of it is my fault."

He recalled for The Sun that he was part of the committee that fought EBMUD's plan to construct the Lafayette link down the center of business area (and Mt. Diablo Boulevard).

Mossman stated that his arguments on cost estimates helped the local merchants keep EBMUD out of the downtown area.

Although American Pipe has started to level off the dirt in front of the motel, EBMUD hasn't come forward with any suggestions or arrangements to landscape or fix up the area, Mossman said.

"I just hope they'll leave it in a presentable condition," he said.

Mossman told The Sun that he thought EBMUD has "painted a very minimum picture" of the operation to him which, he now feels, was a "misrepresentation of the facts."

"I DON'T really think the work will be finished next month, but no matter when, I'll just sit here and wait it out," he concluded.

EBMUD officials explain what happened when the new Lafayette Aqueduct was planned this way:

"The district has 100 feet of right-of-way, but when Aqueduct No. 1 was constructed it did not go straight down the right-of-way."

"The district engineers therefore did not think there was room enough to work on the second aqueduct within the 100 feet—and so EBMUD planned to buy more right-of-way along a better route (which happened to be in Lafayette's downtown area)."

"However, the state, which owns land along EBMUD right-of-way gave permission to use some of its property for construction purposes and the district was able to build Aqueduct No. 2 within its original 100-foot right-of-way."

EBMUD officials are quick to point out that the construction of the second aqueduct within the right-of-way would have been impossible without the permission from the state.

WRAPPING PACKAGES to be distributed to rest homes in the county are the Rev. A. E. Syverud, Orinda; Mrs. Edwin Enekvik, Walnut Creek, and Mrs. Syverud. Giving Christmas gifts to the aged is part of the lay visitation program of the Lutheran Welfare Service. Syverud is executive director of the agency.

Let's Squelch These Plans!

It may be just that time of year, but the outcry for higher taxes in the name of more services can be heard from several quarters, and the listeners are in some cases sympathetic.

While a higher state income tax is being proposed to lighten the property-tax load on the county taxpayers, at the same time there is a proposal for a state-wide property tax!

The call for higher state taxes has been sounded by spokesmen for the County Supervisors Association, the State Senate Transportation Committee and the California Teachers Association.

THE STATE PROPERTY TAX has been proposed by the State Department of Education, but this plan ran into opposition from the State Board of Education.

The supervisors' group spokesmen want the higher state income taxes for increased state contributions to welfare, mental health, juvenile, veterans' health and road programs.

Senator Randolph Collier of the Senate Transportation Committee wants increased state gasoline and motor vehicle taxes to pay for increased state participation in county road and city street construction programs.

The CTA has called for more state aid for schools, which are mainly supported by county property taxes.

IT APPEARS that thus far Governor Edmund Brown is holding fast to his pledge not to increase taxes this year, and we hope he will continue to do so.

Higher state taxes might reduce the burden on local property taxes, but we believe this would have merely a short-range result, with the inevitable result being higher state taxes AND local taxes.

The pledge to lower one tax by increasing others may sound promising, but any such proposal bears sharp scrutiny.

Those Detours!

This will be a short editorial, but brevity does not mean we are not concerned about the detours which the State Division of Highways has deemed necessary between Orinda and the Caldecott Tunnel.

Although so far there have been only minor accidents, they have nearly doubled in number over comparable earlier periods of time, and conditions of winter and fog do not make the prospects any brighter.

Whether or not each and every detour is absolutely necessary, they are there, and it behooves Mr. Commuter and Mrs. Motorist to watch that speedometer. Most of the collisions now are the result of cars slowing quickly when faced with a detour, not giving the motorist in back time to react.

Also, Mr. Highway Engineer, try to make these detours as safe as possible. Even at best, a detour in that area is a hazard.

A Step Forward

The agreement for joint use of the Lafayette Reservoir, with the county being the lessor and operator, appears to be a big step toward obtaining the use of East Bay Municipal Utility lands for public recreation without expenditure of large amounts of taxpayers' money.

With this accomplished, can similar arrangements be made for lands in Redwood Canyon, also Briones Dam and San Pablo Dam areas?

With this done, the county can work toward the long range solution of the development of public parks, at the same time obtaining the more immediate use of the lands for our present residents.

A Warning...

It's Christmas time, and with the joyous celebrating and colorful decorating comes the threat that your home may be consumed in flames during the merriest of seasons.

It has happened in our area, and it will probably happen again despite the vigilance of our local fire department.

There are many ways to make your home a fire danger during the holidays—unscreened fireplaces, untended candles on mantels, misplaced ashtrays, flammable decorations.

And the traditional Christmas tree has been the origin of many Yuletide fires. It would be well for you to check methods of "fireproofing" your tree this year.

Enjoy the Christmas season, but remember it may be your happiest season, or the unhappiest due to a home fire, the result of carelessness.

Sparky says:

If Fire Strikes Your Home...

GET OUT of the house the minute you discover it or smell smoke!

ALWAYS be ready to use different escape routes from any room in your house!

TEST doors before opening. If doors are hot, block them with furniture or wet mattresses to keep out smoke and gases. Get out another way!

NEVER jump from upper-story windows except as a last resort! Wait for firemen.

HOLD your breath if you have to make a dash through smoke and flame!

REMEMBER, the air is usually better near the floor in a smoke-filled room!

CALL the fire department at once! They know how to fight fire. Don't waste your time or your life trying to fight a fire, unless it's so small you're sure you can control it with the right extinguisher.

DON'T ever go back to a burning building for any reason! Smoke and fire gases from even the smallest fire can be deadly.

GET medical treatment at once, if you're burned or exposed to fire and smoke! Seemingly minor burns or smoke inhalation can have fatal results.

DON'T GIVE FIRE A PLACE TO START!

PLAZA TREE

Dear Editor:

I read with interest your article on the "Leaning Evergreen."

It may be of interest to you that reference was made to the same tree in "The First Hundred Years of Alamo Lodge No. 122, F. & A. M." published in 1957.

It says: "In 1933 the lodge voted a resolution of appreciation and gratitude to Dr. Leech who had that December completed his 27th year as treasurer of Alamo Lodge. He was then in ill health and not a candidate for re-election. His death came a month later and the lodge buried him with Masonic honors. Following his burial, an evergreen tree was planted in the public square in Lafayette and dedicated to his memory..."

It seems that this Dr. Leech was one of the few doctors in this area at the time and that he was well liked, hence the dedication.

This information I received from John Demartini of Concord. He tells me that in fact, he performed the funeral services himself, and that he knew the man well, and that this tree is the one we are talking about.

CUT VACATIONS?

Dear Editor,

Your editorial on the 6-day school week raises in my mind again the issue of the longer school year.

The long 10 week summer vacation continues to pose a problem for the pupils, the teachers, the parents and the community.

If, for instance, the present 10 week summer vacation was cut to six weeks, the 12 years of elementary and high school program could be accomplished in 11 years.

This would add millions of dollars of school plant use.

Teachers could be paid more for each year's work, without adding to the tax burden.

Further, they would be spared the necessity of looking for summer jobs.

The tendency toward delinquent activities, brought on by the boredom of the long summer vacation, would be lessened.

Many students going on to college could use the extra year.

The compulsory military service uses up precious time too, so that completion of school a year sooner does have advantages.

These arguments have been stated over and over.

I've never read any arguments against this plan. How do you feel on the subject?

William W. Scott Jr.

Come on in & tiptoe (don't trip!) through greenery

Come on in & tiptoe (don't trip!) through the greenery!

By MARIE MONAHAN

COME ON IN! We're giving the house the full treatment & you shall be our first guest.

It all started when we found just the right tree this morning. Our favorite kind. Feathery, full-armed... a beautiful old-fashioned fir.

Then this once-a-year fever possessed us!

THE tree isn't trimmed yet. That comes later with sort of a family ceremony... & probably the usual fuming & fussing when we try to untangle the lights.

But we've already been into the boxes as you can see. There are miniature dolls of all kinds, small Steiff monkeys & bears saved over the years, straw stars, figures, horses & angels of flax from Sweden.

Tiny strings of Norwegian, Danish & American flags will be swagged from bough to bough. We can't slight the Irish HERE, so there are garlands of shing green shamrocks, too, peeking out between the bangles, the crinolines angels, the Danish woven paper baskets, the cornucopias to be filled with candy.

A "Made in Kindergarten" paper chain will survive still another seasonal stringing up & tumbles from tissue wrappings together with waxed paper stars, old needlepoint Santas, paper drums, gilded trumpets & a parade of toy soldiers.

HIGH ON the white brick fireplace, the same sentimental arrangement is back in place. Tied to lavish pine boughs, toy musical instruments that once made merry noises have been freshly refurbished with gold spray...

THE DIME store drum, a little French bugle, a tin flute & trumpets, even a toy violin join a mellowed Italian ocarina & an antique zither to make this traditional display at our house. The Santa Lucia crown spills nuts & tangerines... & the whole house, garlanded with greens from room to room, smells delicious. Like a gingerbread house in the woods.

Candleglow spotlights the tiny rose-hued apples speared to the spikes of the wooden Crab Apple tree on the coffee table.

On the commode, a tall red wooden cookie tree based by the big ironstone bowl billowing fruit, stands waiting for gay little wreath cookies. These will be baked this weekend to suspend in sassy array with bright red ribbon.

The tremendous old linen cloths, now dyed a rich turkey red, are due for their annual stitching—with a bountiful edging of frothy white fringe. The cloths, swagged country-style, boast holly sprigs at a later date.

SEE! Even Clancy, the deer head high up, wears a crown of gold German paper, a collar of greens & a jaunty red satin bow tie. (Poor dear! All decked out & no place to go...)

CHRISTMAS upstairs, downstairs, all through the house. We cut the droopy deodar to drape boughs above some of the bedrooms, like vernal valances in a mountain greenery home.

(But we've learned to sleep with mouth closed! Once those needles dry & start dropping, it's a bad night's sleep... but what price beauty!)

Out back where we feed the wild birds, a blonde sheaf of wheat hangs boldly sashed in red, holding bits of suet & plump handpainted wooden birds.

THAT'S another old toy, that gold Glockenspiel backed with greens on the dutch door. How about playing a few notes as you leave?

"Deck the halls with boughs of holly," maybe? Glad you stopped in... & Happy Holidays!

Dear Editor: The Orinda Republican Women's Club wishes to thank you for the courtesies extended to it during the year for the generous space you gave to notices sent to you concerning its activities.

CECILY SAYERS

Dear Editor: This letter is somewhat late but nonetheless sincere.

Many thanks for the article excellent I thought.

I have already begun to be quite busy here.

As a matter of interest, I am a member of the Music Teachers' Association of California, and of the American Guild of Organists now.

I have prospects of becoming organist and choir director of a local church in the new year and I have been approached by a singer who wants a professional accompanist.

I have had the usual inquiries re piano lessons and am making arrangements to take one or two pupils, though from the outset I have determined to take only those who show signs of having talent and enormous interest.

Thank you again.

How Far, Greeley, How Far?

By WALT WRIGHT

A poet named Nayan McNeill wrote, in a magazine I was connected with a few years ago, about us, "The Californians."

"We were mothered by a golden valley," she began. And, eight lines later, she closed: "We were born here finished, with no west."

Now, in her poem Nayan was writing of the seasons—or the lack of them in this golden valley. Here and now, she said, is "the static center of the turning year," for Californians.

And while there have been storms and fogs and freezing weather to prove me wrong, I must agree with Nayan that here we have eluded the seasons.

LOOKING FOR fall, we find false spring. Lacking New England's maples, our countryside does a demure and colorless striptease in autumn.

And who, having visited any one of the other United States, can call this December "winter"?

True, with only a short trip we can find in the Sierra's snow Christmastime as most Americans know it. But on the other hand, we need not go so far south as Christmas Island... or Dangiroa... to place our Christmas in July.

And this means, I think, that the year does not change around us. Here at "the static center of the turning year" a Californian must move through space to discover time.

"We were born here finished, with no west."

BUT, NAYAN, I have an answer for your riddle, and not a pleasant one.

It gives me no particular satisfaction that there should be another "west" beyond that one you called ultimate.

An ocean bounds us, so the new west is not in territory. It is in time. It is tomorrow.

This is the most promised land of all.

The land, and life upon it, is promised to a thousand men and women who walked upon it for the first time today. (And to a thousand more tomorrow. It is promised to their children and to ours.)

THE WATER from this land is promised. (I have heard the water table is dropping. I have heard there are kinds of oak which will not survive the century.)

Homes have been promised faster than they can be built. (Not built, "developed"—and if the developer runs out of land he will take the air. Too many castles in air cut out the sunlight.)

Tracts, villages, centers, towns, cities—all new, all promised. (In this valley alone, developers have promised senior citizens a "World"—twice!)

And I mention primarily promises of shelter. There are, I understand, a few other requirements of life—all promised.

HERE IS your new west, Californian. And with it comes a season you looked for in vain: autumn.

You waited for a leaf to fall? An orchard falls as quickly! You searched the evergreen hillsides for a riot of colors? Presto: pastel condominia!

You longed for a time when the earth seems to die? Californian, that time has come.

ROTARY

Dear Editor:

May I take a few moments of your time to thank you for the fine publicity that you have given the Rotary Club of Lafayette?

The articles on the construction of the fountain and the front page comments in your editorial after the completion of the fountain were greatly appreciated.

I also would like to thank you for the good publicity that you gave our sale of last weekend. You were most helpful in the success of this sale. Again, many thanks.

Also enjoyed the comments about trees being planted in the downtown area.

This is one phase of community service that our Rotary Club is investigating to see if we can possibly secure and plant the trees, once the sidewalks and gutters are in.

Your cooperation and help is truly appreciated.

Under The Sun Silverman to the Sharks? You Missed Your Chance

By HERMAN SILVERMAN

RANGIROA, TUAMOTU ISLANDS, FRENCH POLYNESIA—Yesterday Eleanor and I pulled on swim fins, masks and snorkels and dove off the speed boat into Rangiroa's lagoon.

I suddenly saw Eleanor hastily climbing back into the boat.

I ducked my head into the water again to enjoy the beautiful coral formations and tropical fish. Then, I saw it!

A shark! Ugly, about three-feet long but it looked 12 feet to me. I looked again. Another shark — and another shark four feet long! another one nearly six feet. (It was probably three feet—but six makes a better story.)

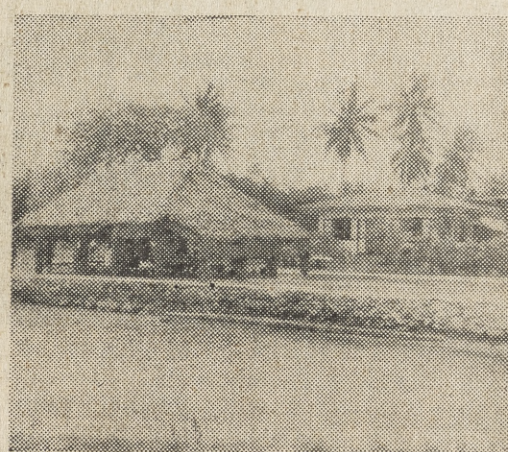

I didn't look any further. I, too, swam to the boat as fast as my fins would take me.

"Elastic," the handsome Chinese Tuamotuan boatman, laughed at me.

"Recon?" he asked.

I gasped, "Shark!"

Nodding his head yes, Elastic explained, "Babe."

GRASS SHACK FOR DINING

Just a baby shark

Obviously, he meant baby shark but at no time during our three-day stay did he give us any assurance that the sharks were harmless. There was always an exception.

"The lagoon sharks are usually harmless—but the ocean sharks may attack."

We never did find out how to tell the difference! (By the second day, we ignored the sharks and, fortunately, they ignored us.)

John Shastid, VP of Gallo Wine in Modesto, inspired me to try spear fishing. I'm not exactly the athletic type, you know, but it really looked like fun to gracefully float toward the coral gardens, aim your spear gun and pierce a lovely Parrot fish.

It looked so easy.

Look what he got!

John speared a baby octopus — about five feet across. He then spotted a Moray eel under a rock about 20 feet below—and speared him. The Tuamotuan boys one day "shot" about 40 fish with the greatest ease.

For one full day, I dove and dove, aimed and fired my spear gun—and then had a tough time pulling the spear out of the coral—without fish.

Finally today—(hooray!) I speared a giant fish—about five inches across. But what a thrill!

(By the time you read this, we will be back at our desks, having flown from Tahiti to Honolulu via South Pacific Air Lines.)

We love the people

We love the Tahitians and the Chinese throughout France's Polynesian Islands. The Bora Borans and Tuamotuans are different—and wonderful.)

You should see the Saturday night dance at the Bora Bora Hotel, where the island Tanes and Vahines

Elastic and John are proud of their catch drink Hinano beer (most have soft drinks) and dance.

Wow! Dance you call it?

The Tahitian tamure is as sexy a dance as is possible. Phone me and I'll tell you more.

But close to the tamure is the way they do "le twist!" Terrific!

How did I get on this subject?

We must leave Rangiroa—today—climb into RAY's flying boat and return to Papeete, Tahiti, the big city of 15,000, with cars, electricity, Quinn's famous bar and hectic civilization!

And so, as the sun sets...

Christmas for the kiddies, complete with Santa, will take the place of the regular monthly meeting of the NAD Concord Wives Club Tuesday from 10 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.

To be held in building 1A-30 at the Naval Ammunition Depot, Concord, the party is designed for young children up to the third grade, according to Mrs. Jack Miller, party chairman. "Santa is due to touch down at 10:30 sharp," states Mrs. Miller.

Members are reminded to bring a gift for each of her children with the full name of the child on the tag. Each member will also bring an adult gift for exchange at the party. All gifts are limited to $1 maximum.

"A special holiday project will be the assembling of a basket for a needy family," tells Mrs. A. R. Ertl, club president. "We plan to share with those less fortunate by contributing a gift of canned goods, clothing, or a new toy." These gifts may be brought the day of the party or to the Ertl residence (Quarters M).

Marshal J, Clown, Carols To Shine for Laurel Jr.

Santa and his helpers, in the form of Christmas Pixies, will be on hand tomorrow at the Walnut Creek Elks Club when Laurel Junior Branch of the Children's Hospital of the East Bay holds its Christmas Party for Children.

Festivities will begin promptly at 11 a.m. with the Montecito Elementary School Chorus from Lafayette singing Christmas Carols as soon as the small guests are seated.

Then Happy the Clown will take over as master of ceremonies for a program of cartoons, magic, group singing and fun.

As a stellar attraction, Marshal J of TV fame will make an appearance during the party. Marshal J is well-known to all the children because of his local television show and many a small cowpoke will wish to meet up with him, podner!

Before the entertainment ends at 12:30, Santa Claus will come down from the North Pole and greet the guests, bringing with him his Christmas Pixies who will have baskets of goodies for each departing youngster.

Laurel Junior is providing a coffee hour for mothers while Girl Scouts look after the small fry. The Christmas party is for toddlers, pre-schoolers and young school children and any older brothers and sisters who want to get in on the fun.

Tickets are $1 and are available from any branch member or by calling branch chairman, Mrs. John Tague at 924-7981. There will be a limited number of tickets available at the door.

Mrs. Ed Dormer of Danville and Mrs. James Cullom of Piedmont are co-chairmen of this new event.

Committee members are Mrs. Gregory Gibson of Lafayette, favors; Mrs. Austin Merrill, Lafayette, refreshments; Mrs. Daniel Smith, Piedmont, tickets, and Mrs. Robert Gillan of Walnut Creek, publicity.

Volunteer Pins Given to Local Hospital Workers

Mrs. W. Delbridge Desch, Lafayette and Mrs. G. W. Miller, Orinda, recently received 700 hour pins for hospital volunteer service. The awards were made by the American Hospital Association to members of the auxiliary of Samuel Merritt Hospital.

Dr. Samuel P. Hall, chief of obstetrics and gynecology at Merritt, was guest speaker at the Lake Merritt Sail Boat House.

A 300-hour pin went to Mrs. Jack Waner of Orinda. Among those receiving 100-hour pins was Mrs. Edward Baker.

In the junior volunteer group, Sue Parsons and Penny Phillips, both of Orinda, received 50-hour pins.

Foursome Attend USC Buffet Lunch

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dornis and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Nootbaar, all of Lafayette, were guests at a buffet luncheon in Los Angeles recently. The foursome attended a party given by Dr. Norman Topping, president of the University of Southern California.

Meanwhile, on Top of Mt. Diablo...

One of the most "going" establishments in the county is the Terrace Tea Room, 1475 East Newell Avenue, Walnut Creek.

Its proceeds benefit the part-pay rehabilitation programs of the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center.

Much of the success of the tea room goes to 400 volunteer women who probably have "help" in their own homes. Once a month, on the average, they work at the tea room as waitresses, cashiers, hostesses, coffee girls, kitchen assistants—wherever their services are needed.

One morning they must be on the job at 6:30 a.m. to serve breakfast to a men's service club.

Another reason for the phenomenal success of the tea room must go to the petite, brunette, dynamic publicity chairman, Mrs. John (Connie) Goldeen of Orinda.

During the 18 months since the tea room opened, Connie has been responsible for getting "plugs" in local and city papers, national radio and TV networks, and in leading columns throughout the Bay Area. All of the space has been given free—as are Connie's valuable talents.

The little dynamo spends countless hours on the publicity releases, which put many a high-paid P.R. person to shame. Busy wife and mother of two small sons, she participates in their many activities. She knows where charity must begin—but there seems to be no end to it!

Connie is a member of Tanager unit. Her sister, Mrs. Richard (Janet) Leiber, of Alamo, is a member of Flicker unit and of the board of directors of Mt. Diablo Therapy Center.

A sample of Connie's ingenuity is shown above. At left, she is shown pouring coffee at the tea room at one of the fashion shows for teenagers, which are given the second Saturday of the month at noon and 1 p.m.

To the right, Connie does a bit of showmanship worthy of P. T. Barnum! She serves luncheon (from the tea room) to Chief Ranger Robert Stewart and sister Janet at the summit of Mt. Diablo.

A substantial check was recently presented to the center by the outgoing board of directors of the Therapy Center Terrace.

Mrs. Robert Spitzack, retiring president of the Terrace, gave the gift to Mrs. Juanita Benoy, administrator of the center.

This check represented the profit of the tearoom, which is run by the 17 units of the center, to benefit the center.

New officers for the Therapy Center Terrace for the year 1963 include: President, Mrs. Alfred Patch of Martinez (Nightingale unit); first vice-president, Mrs. Steven Szybal-ski of Walnut Creek (Hummingbird unit); second vice president, Mrs. J. Rockwell Smith of Orinda (Tanager unit); secretary, Mrs. K. S.

Welch of Lafayette (Lark unit), and treasurer, Mrs. Gus C. Malmquist of Walnut Creek (Robin unit).

Want a White Christmas? Go to the Snow Country

By HEC HANCOCK

Normally, the thought of a "White Christmas" hardly brings to mind visions of familiar California vistas. Particularly, in view of the present lack of a snowbank in the Sierra.

For the most part, many tend to associate the hoary, snow-clad New England landscapes as the typical holiday scene. Currier and Ives obviously never got west of the Mississippi.

The thousands of expatriates from the eastern seaboard and the midwestern plains that now populate our fair regions, never have cause to miss the intemperate weather they have left behind. Except over the holiday season.

For those, plus the many local types that have always longed for a traditional white Christmas, the solution is very simple. Since it is hardly likely that we would ever get the necessary ingredients, namely snow, for a white Christmas, then go where the white stuff is. If the mountain won't come to you, go to the mountain.

While there may not be enough of a snow pack for ideal ski conditions, there should be enough snow in the mountains to warrant the designation of snow country. Regardless of ski conditions, a sojourn to the high country over the holidays can be a most delightful experience.

Those who have their own mountain retreats have no problems. However, those not as fortunate can greet Christmas morn from a varied list of accommodations.

There are many compensations for leaving the comforts of your lowland home, compensations that would be sure to make this a Christmas you would long remember.

The kids can throw snowballs, and slide down hills. The skiers can partake of the joys of the slopes. The non-skiers can relax and enjoy the scenery. This is the chance to enjoy the brisk, exhilarating mountain air, pungent with the smell of pine.

At the close of the day, it's time to enjoy the warmth and glow of a hearty fire in the fireplace. It could even snow lightly, giving the landscape a real Christmas card appearance.

Actually, it's a very simple matter to accomplish. The Sierra is loaded with spots that would be ideal for such purposes.

Yosemite, and adjacent Wawona for example. This beautiful area is at its spectacular best in its winter finery.

An ideal area for your white Christmas is Lake Tahoe, particularly, the North Shore. The summer throngs have long departed, and from Tahoe City to Crystal Bay there are many and varied places to stay. The changing moods of Tahoe with its adjacent towering snowcapped peaks provides an untiring scene.

The South Shore of Lake Tahoe is another locale well suited for your Christmas visitation. The Calaveras Big Tree area above Angels Camp would be ideal. So would Twain Harle and Pinercrest.

All these areas are quickly and easily reached by all-weather highways. There are a great variety of restaurants if you would prefer to eat out. If you desire to prepare your own Christmas turkey, there are well-stocked markets nearby making it unnecessary to go grocery shopping before you leave.

If you need help in choosing an area, check with the California State Chamber of Commerce in San Francisco. They have compiled lists of overnight accommodations in the winter sports areas.

It could be the first step towards your own White Christmas and a holiday you won't forget.

DVC Wins Fifth Game

Diablo Valley College ran its record to 5-1 with a 70-40 rout of Sacramento City College Tuesday night.

The Vikings lost their first game after four wins Saturday night, 69-35, to the San Jose State team.

Friday night the string reached four with a hard-fought, 52-47, win at Modesto Junior College.

Sam Coston and Mickey Toner paced the win over Sacramento with 12 points each. Tom Strain chipped in the 11 more.

DVC led, 35-23, at the half.

AFTER A ROUGH Modesto game, in which the Viks made up a 10-point deficit to rally for the victory, the Vikings had to come right back the next afternoon for another game.

In the Modesto game the Vikings were down 31-26 at half-time. Coston, Rex Bankhead and Toner all hit in double figures. Coston was high man for the game with 14. Bankhead had 12 and Toner had 11.

Saturday's game saw the Vikings outplayed in every department. DVC was completely off target in its shooting, hitting 10 of 33 shots from the field for 30 per cent. They hit only 15 of 27 shots from the free throw line. Coston was again high for DVC with 14.

Toner, DVC center, who had been averaging over 15 points per game, was held scoreless and grabbed off only three rebounds.

Thunderbirds Are Honored at Banquet

LaMorinda's Thunderbirds held their annual awards banquet for team members Monday evening at Inland Valley School in Orinda.

Seven players were presented with awards from club president Joseph Longacre and coach Pete Villa.

Guest speakers for the affair were Jim Phillips, sophomore guard from the University of California, and county supervisor Tom Coll.

The Pop Warner football team finished third (6-2-0) in the East Bay Division of the Pop Warner Football League this year. The team was first organized in 1960. This was its third season.

BOB VOORTMEYER and Jack Isola received the first annual "player-scholar" awards from the Pop Warner League.

There were four such awards given in the 10-team league.

The four boys were picked from the top 25 players in the league as judged by the coaches. From the boys, the league commissioner requested an essay on the meaning of Pop Warner football; a list of grades for the previous year, and a character report from the school principal.

Two judges from outside the league organization then picked the best four boys on the basis of all the reports.

BLANKETS WERE given the four boys who were selected as the best "player-scholar" in the league. Voortmeyer played both ways for the Thunderbirds. He was their fullback on offense and a defensive halfback.

He is an eighth grader at Fairview School in Lafayette.

Isola was the team's offensive center. He is a freshman at St. Mary's High School in Berkeley.

The annual coaches' Joe Dame memorial award for the player who provides the best inspiration to his teammates was given to Brian Moriarty for 1961 and Steve Seely for 1962.

When first originated, the trophy was a perpetual one that remained with the club and the

Friday Roundup Falcons Lose First Game; Other Cage Teams Win

In prep basketball games played last Friday evening, Del Valle kept its winning streak alive while College Park was absorbing its first loss of the year.

Del Valle, with a 39-34 win over John Swett, had won three in a row.

All other local prep teams have lost at least one game.

In other games, Miramonte thumped Galileo, 52-25; Pleasant Hill routed Alhambra, 45-29; Acalanes outlasted the Alumni, 66-59; and College Park was frozen out by DeAnza, 32-20.

Del Valle, an easy winner in its first two games, had problems with John Swett before going on top to stay early in the fourth quarter.

CENTER Dave Paul gave the Trojans the go-ahead basket late in the game, but it was Bill O'Toole who paced the win with 17 points.

Paul finished with nine points. Miramonte, in winning its second straight game after an opening loss, again used its entire bench. Guard Bruce Nickerson paced the Matadors with 11 points.

Steve Cummings was the only other player to hit in double figures. He got 10 points.

Mark Kimball and Steve Dawkins again paced Pleasant Hill as the Rams won No. 2 after an opening loss to Acalanes.

Kimball got 12 points and Dawkins, 10, but Alhambra's Bart Spina was the game's top scorer with 17.

BOB STRAIN and Bart Rocca paced Acalanes to its win over the Alumni.

Both had 16 points as the Dons caught the grads in the fourth period and won going away.

John Paul Jones, a standout last year, paced the grads with 13 points.

College Park, the only local team to lose Friday night, just could not find the range against slow-moving, stalling DeAnza.

Falcons Halt Del Valle Victory String at Three

In games played Tuesday afternoon, College Park nipped Del Valle, 41-40, in a thriller and Miramonte routed Oakland Tech, 64-45.

It was the first loss of the year for the Trojans after three wins.

Del Valle and College Park are both 3-1 now.

Miramonte also upped its record to 3-1 with the win over Oakland Tech.

The Mats have a three-game winning streak going for them as they enter the Redwood Empire tournament at Healdsburg this weekend.

Monday, San Ramon dropped its fourth straight game of the year, 57-49, to Clayton Valley.

College Park 41, Del Valle 40. Forward Sam Martinelli scored on a driving layup with just 17 seconds to go in the game to give the Falcons the hard-fought win over previously undefeated Del Valle.

The Trojans got a chance to win the game, but a shot failed with three seconds to play.

College Park led 12-8 after the first quarter, but Del Valle outscored the Falcons, 17-10, in the second quarter to lead 25-22 at the intermission. Guard John Colwell paced the Trojan comeback with three second-quarter baskets.

After gaining the upper hand in the second quarter, the Trojans led until the final three minutes of the game. The lead changed hands several times thereafter until Martinelli's clutch basket.

After the free-scoring opening half, both teams saw their shooting go sour in the third quarter.

With Del Valle missing on seven straight free throws, College Park "won" the third quarter, 5-4.

Although Martinelli (20-4) got the winning two-pointer, it was Bob Roberts and Roger Mower who paced the College Park attack.

Mower had 14 points as he connected from the free throw line six times and Roberts, who hit on seven charity tosses, had 13 points.

Center Dave Paul paced the Trojans with 12 points on four field goals and a like number of free throws. No other Del Valle player was in double figures.

Miramonte 64, Oakland Tech 45. After a slow-scoring first quarter Miramonte racked up 23 points in the second quarter for a 32-22 halftime lead and went on to rout Oakland Tech.

The Matadors scored 24 more points in the third period as coach Herb Graves continues to give his reserves plenty of game action.

Guard Bruce Nickerson paced the Mats to their third straight win with 22 points—his high of the year.

After going without a basket in the first half, Nickerson poured in 17 points in the third quarter—including his game total of seven field goals.

Miramonte's second quarter spurgle was paced by forward Steve Cummings and Pete Boyle. Boyle finished with 10 points and Cummings 8 for the game.

Clayton Valley 57, San Ramon 49. Clayton Valley gained the edge in the second quarter and then held off San Ramon to hand the

PH Basketball Leagues Open Season Play

Opening action in the A league of the Pleasant Hill Recreation District's winter basketball program found Curtain Shop and the All-Stars winning.

Curtain Shop routed Nolte Engineers, 66-21, and the All-Stars thumped Hillers, 70-48.

In the B league, Mavericks came from behind to edge Juvenile Hall, 62-61, and Heim Brothers defeated Shell AA, 53-37.

Skip Christianson paced the Curtain Shop win with 16 points. Tim Grasso had 15 and John Molioni, 12, for the winners.

Three players—Bob LaPoint, Bill Lloyd and Gus Edward—all had 20 points for the All-Stars. George Garriman and Bill Herick each had 12 points for Heim Brothers.

Local Tournament Games At PH and DV Tonight

It's tournament time for most area basketball teams—and local prep fans will have a chance to see plenty of action over the weekend.

All local teams except San Ramon, which hosted its own tournament two weeks ago, are taking part in tournaments this weekend.

Acalanes and Del Valle are included in the Del Valle Invitational; Pleasant Hill and College Park are in the Mid-Valley Classic; Miramonte is at Healdsburg for the Redwood Empire Invitational, and Las Lomas is competing in the Amador Valley tournament at Pleasanton.

GAMES will be played at Del Valle and Pleasant Hill tonight.

At Del Valle tonight at 7:30, Acalanes faces Skyline and the Trojans meet Cupertino at 8:45.

Tomorrow night the teams change partners, with Del Valle again playing the "nightcap." There will be no tournament "champion," but an all-star team will be picked.

The Mid-Valley Classic got under way yesterday afternoon at four gyms, with Pleasant Hill and Mt. Diablo hosting the second rounds tonight. Games will be played at 7 and 8:30.

Yesterday evening after The Sun went to press, College Park hosted St. Mary's of Berkeley. Pleasant Hill was at Ygnacio Valley, Mt. Diablo visited Pacifica and Alhambra was at Clayton Valley in the first round of the tournament.

TONIGHT at Pleasant Hill, the two winning teams from the College Park and Ygnacio Valley games will meet at 8:30 and the two losers will play at 7.

At Mt. Diablo, the other bracket will produce a finalist in the same manner.

Tomorrow night all eight teams will play in the new gym at Ygnacio Valley High School.

Games are at 3, 4:40, 7 and 8:30.

The championship game, of course, is at 8:30, with the battle

K-WUN to Air 'Classic' Games

Radio station K-WUN (1480) will rebroadcast three Mid-Valley Classic tournament games Saturday and Sunday afternoons.

Both the third-place game and the championship game will be rebroadcast starting at 1:15 p.m. Sunday.

Pleasant Hill and College Park are among the eight-team field.

Is the night after Christmas

Not a creature is stirring—and certainly not Santa. He's enjoying the comfort of an electric blanket. (He found it under his Christmas tree!)

Everyone likes the light-weight warmth of one electric blanket. You choose the warmth, and it stays the same automatically, even though the room temperature changes. It's a gift gratefully received. (The old blankets could be a gift, too—for CARE, 444 Market Street, San Francisco.)

Teen-age Miss Contest

Danville Junior Women's Club is preparing to honor a San Ramon Valley High School girl, who is a typical "Teen Age Miss" of the San Ramon Valley for 1963.

Mrs. Emma Willson, dean of girls at the school has selected 14 outstanding students to participate.

Each candidate must complete an autobiographical sketch, not to exceed 650 words, about herself and to submit references, letters and photograph.

The student will be judged on scholastic ability and should display an interest in church and civic work and participate in extra-curricular activities. This is not a scholarship, popularity or a beauty contest, but an "award of merit".

The judges, not yet announced by the Danville Junior Women's Club will make the final decision in January.

Each of the 14 Junior Women's Clubs in the Mount Diablo District of the California Federation of Women's Clubs, may participate in the contest by selecting the most outstanding teen-age girl of the community, announced Mrs. Trevor Overett, local chairman. The winner from each club competes for Mt. Diablo district honors at the convention in April, which will be held at the Concord Inn.

Winner of the 1962 "Teen Age Miss" contest was Miss Carol Ann Boeck of Alamo.

List of girls from whom a winner will be selected in January are: Carol Harvey, Marion Bulin, Augusta Desimone, Meg Rasmussen, Nancy Dixon, Carl Morris, Patti Helsel, Ann Stone, Jennifer Johnson, Sidney Gorman, Ann Ditzler, Lesley Green, Suzie Burks and Peggy Koch.

Symbols of Christmas Are Varied

By MARIE MONAHAN

Boxing day in England doesn't mean, I found out, that everybody goes around punching everybody in the nose.

The Britons who were the first to box a gift, can be credited for boxing the first gift. Thus "Boxing Day," celebrated by the English on the day after Christmas when everyone delivers presents to friends.

During this day of traditional present exchange outside the family, a homemade trifle (or trifle) is made with sponge cake, gelatin and jam and presented in the manner in which Americans bear fruitcake to one another's homes. It is actually the English plum pudding, surrounded by holly and served up with a flame, that is filled with "trifles" or surprises—like shiny sixpences, small trinkets and toys.

THE YULE CAKE is a cake on which there is a candle for each member of the family. The lighting of the Yule cake, when each member lights his own candle, is a real ceremony. In some homes it signifies the birthday cake for the Infant Jesus.

From mince pies to plum puddings, the favored foods of the Christmas season are many. Centuries ago, the King of England was caught in the woods where he'd been hunting with friends on Christmas Eve. The cook, caught with near bare cupboards, put everything he could find into the pot for the simple feast and made the first plum pudding. The ingredients used on that occasion are said to have formed the basic recipe for plum puddings to this day.

MINCE PIES were made in ancient times in oblong shape to represent the manger. The contents were supposed to commemorate, in their mixture, the spices which the Wise Men gave to the Christ Child.

IN MANY HOMES, the suckling pig will be the traditional table fare. When it comes to the boar's head, legend says that a student from Queen's College, Oxford, England was walking in the forest Christmas Day, studying his Aristotle, when he was attacked by a boar. The student defended himself by thrusting the book in the boar's mouth so that day, as a celebration, the boar's head, with an apple in its mouth, was served at the college. The custom is followed in some American colleges and is probably the reason a roast pig rates a glorious gold one in his at many a family feasting.

In some countries, carrots are left by the chimney or tree for the horse used by Saint Nicholas or the reindeer used by Santa Claus, while in Scandinavian countries, sheaves of grain are tied outside the house for the birds at Christmas time.

IN Ireland, a pan of oats is placed as high as possible with twelve lighted candles, representing the twelve apostles, around it. A larger candle in the center represents Christ, the "Light of the world," as the smaller candles represent his representatives as lights in the world.

We'll all hang up our stockings but in some European countries, wooden shoes are used to receive gifts. They are placed by the fireplace and often contain offerings for the reindeer or white horse of the gift bearer.

No sleigh or Rudolph for Saint Nicholas who used a white horse when he journeys forth to distribute gifts to good children and SWITCHES to bad ones. (That's even worse than that lump of coal. Remember?).

FOR the lovely poinsettia

flower and the colorful pinata we have Mexico to thank. The poinsettia, one of our most significant Christmas symbols, takes its name from Dr. Joel Poinsett who was sent as a minister from the United States. Home to his South Carolina garden he brought the first small wild plants with their tiny yellow flowers surrounded by gorgeous red leaves.

What has become known as the "Christmas flower" of the United States, grows profusely in the south today, some as tall as small buildings. There are also white and pink poinsettias, but the red ones remain the favorites here.

THE PINATA, favored for decoration as well as children's parties, is ornamental as well as edible. Fashioned of paper in fantastic shapes, the pinata contains a pottery bowl full of candies and goodies. The bag is suspended from the ceiling and on Christmas Eve, blindfolded children take turns trying to break the sack with a stick. The gifts scatter on the floor and the guests eagerly scamp for the contents. The one who breaks the pinata receives a dividend gift.

For renewing old friendships once a year, we can thank a Mr. Joseph Cundall who published the first greeting cards in England in 1844, thus originating one of the most widely used customs today.

EVER wonder how the Christmas seal got its start? It was the idea of a Copenhagen postal clerk, Einar Holboell, to issue a stamp in Denmark for letters at Christmas time, the proceeds to be used for some worthy cause. A picture of Queen Louise, by consent of King Christian IX, was used on the first seal sent out in 1904.

Going Christmas caroling? The first songs of the Nativity date from the Fourth Century and German lieder from the 11th. Some 200 years later, carols found their way into France and Britain. Some scholars believe caroling is a carry-over from the Roman songs of the Saturnalia.

One quaint belief of northern England was that on Christmas Eve the bees gathered and hummed carols.

THE HORN is a symbol of Christmas and "Blowing the Yule" is a Danish custom. Just as the sun is rising on Christmas, the trumpeters play four hymns, one for each corner of the earth, beginning with "A Mighty Fortress Is Our God!"

Harp, "the angels' instruments" are used in the dawn service on Christmas Day in Wales.

Bora Bora Is Beautiful, But Waiting Is Long...

By ELEANOR SILVERMAN

"Monsieur, L'aeroplan de Tahiti?" I asked in my best pidgin French.

The French custom official aboard the S.S. Monterey in Bora Bora would, of course, help me go out to the landing strip to meet my husband.

"But I am not sure that he will arrive on that plane. I am only hoping that he will be able to fly in from Tahiti and join me on the Monterey for the one day voyage from Bora Bora to Tahiti. You see, he arrived in Tahiti from Honolulu by South Pacific Air Lines this morning, and I am sure he will fly to Bora Bora to catch the boat back to Tahiti with me," I explained.

"MADAME, if your husband were there—Aah! Eeef not—," a shrug of the shoulders was his answer.

Alone with the native driver on the speed boat to the separate landing strip on the nearby islet off Bora Bora; I surveyed the calm and beauty of the blues and greens of the water, the quiet atolls with lone palm tree fringes, the crazy, cartoon-like tiny desert islands, the stationary fishing boats.

The Monterey tucked in the bay under the jagged cliffs looked more like a new white toy in a pond than my home away from home.

The speed boat motor no longer jarred the quiet scene. On shore a few laughing children broke the silence; the others found no need for useless chatter.

AS I WALKED through the jungle-like growth the half-mile to the landing strip, I thought I detected the roar of the plane, the delays and inconveniences.

THE RELAXED gaze of the vacationer is seen on Bill Brant of 304 Prospect Avenue, Danville, who when this photo was taken was aboard the S.S. Monterey, landing in Bora Bora, en route to New Zealand. Bill plans an extensive vacation of hunting and fishing.

No, it was the ocean rumbling on the other side of the reef.

Great excitement at the landing strip. One small maintenance machine roaring, the engine turning over in the truck waiting to meet the R.A.I. plane.

No plane in the sky. An hour of waiting in this lonely spot taught me a better way to handle delays and inconveniences.

me down. My husband was not on the plane.

The next day in Tahiti I learned that Herman had consulted Matson and South Pacific Air Line officials about the possibility of taking this plane to Bora Bora. He was informed that French laws do not permit passage from Bora Bora to Tahiti on the Matson ship.

The French government does not want to lose the travel business on this short sailing.

And still later, we learned from the French government official:

"Madame et Monsieur, eef only you had told me your story, we certainly would have altered the rules to allow your reunion in Bora Bora."

Realty Women Elect Prexy: Pauline McGill

Pauline McGill of Arch McKinley, realtor, Walnut Creek, is the president-elect of the Women's Council, Contra Costa Board of Realtors, according to J. N. Smith, president.

Smith said Mrs. McGill was the unanimous choice in the election.

Assisting her will be Lynne Grace of Highland Realty, vice-president, and Dorothy Young of Mason-McDuffie, secretary.

As president of Women's Council, Mrs. McGill will represent the women's organization on the 19-member board of directors.

The council meets monthly, conducts a quarterly speakers' program at regular board meetings and coordinates policy matters of the board with council objectives.

Mrs. McGill specializes in residential and land sales, and has done so for the past two years.

She is a business college graduate and was in insurance and investment brokerage before deciding on a career in real estate.

Accident-Free Holiday? It's Possible

"Citizen cooperation" is the key to an accident free holiday season this year, according to Gene Halliburton and Tom Nilon. Halliburton, district manager for the National Automobile Club in Contra Costa County, said this week that two imperative and decisive steps must be taken by all drivers who earnestly desire to avert injury or accident.

"No driver is free to do as he wishes when he is behind the wheel.

"Safe driving requires that our aggressive and unsocial instincts must be held in check when we are driving just as in every other situation. The second responsibility that all drivers must accept is that of constantly improving their performance behind the wheel.

"Good driving depends squarely on knowing how to drive well," the auto club official declared.

The statement comes as part of a statewide traffic safety campaign scheduled to run through New Year's Day.

Tom Nilon, president, Contra Costa County Association of Insurance Agents, in a similar announcement stated that holiday driving in congested areas has long been stalked by the possibility of accident and bodily injury.

"With darkness coming at much earlier hours, visibility is seriously hampered," he said.

"During 1961 the hours between sundown and sunup recorded 41,550 Californians killed or injured in traffic mishaps.

"The Christmas and New Year holidays this year can help to bring an end to this tragic statistic if drivers conduct themselves as they demand other drivers to do, that is, to use courtesy and patience every minute they are behind the wheel," the insurance executive concluded.

The holiday traffic safety effort has been joined by the religious leadership of the state.

The California Highway Patrol, the California Traffic Safety Foundation, and the California Association of Insurance Agents are urging community officials throughout the state to take an active role in reducing the holiday traffic accident record.

Make Plea for Christmas Aid

A plea for help has been made by the Volunteer Bureau of Contra Costa County.

The needs of over 200 families requiring Christmas help will not be met unless more donations are made to the Christmas Bureau, chairman Mrs. Perry Connor said this week.

The bureau is requesting canned food, money for meat orders, new toys and gifts for senior citizens.

Fresh Christmas Trees Available

It pays to shop early for your Christmas tree. You can choose the size, shape and kind you want. You can give it better care than it gets in the sales lot. Keep it moist and fire-resistant by standing it in water in a cool, shaded place.

Check the tree for freshness. The needles should feel moist. If the needles fall when you move or shake the tree, it is already dry.

Foresters suggest hosing the tree with cold water as soon as you get it home. Then cut off the bottom of the trunk on a slanting angle to open the pores and stand it in a container of water. Keep it cool and away from sun and wind until you are ready to bring it in the house for trimming.

Your Christmas tree will be much safer from a fire-hazard angle if you keep it standing in water. You'll probably have to add water each day.

Best locations for the tree are in the cool part of a room, away from fireplaces and heat sources.

'Dead Spirit' Mourned After Bonfire Rally

A week of mourning for Diablo Valley College's "dead" school spirit was proclaimed last week.

Following a second bonfire rally which bore no resemblance to the so-called "dirty yell rally" last month, commissioner of rallies Pamela Stewart proclaimed the period of mourning and said the rally committee will remain inactive for the rest of the semester.

Only 26 DVC students showed up at the second bonfire rally December 3, according to the Viking Reporter, campus newspaper.

Their ranks were swelled, said the paper, by a dozen Santa Rosa Junior College students, two visitors from the University of California and San Francisco College and "one uniformed representative of the law."

The 26 twisted a bit to the sound of electric guitars and then adjourned to the first home game of the basketball season, the paper said.

ME AND THE TREE are both twelve years old, says David Reeves of the carefully grown Alberta Spruce directly in front of him at Navelet's Nursery. David holds a 3-year-old spruce in his hands, emphasizing the years of care necessary to bring one of these living Christmas trees to holiday size.

Boat Owners To Register

Boat registration renewals will be mailed to the more than 300,000 California boat owners during the next two weeks.

The re-registration is the first required of boat owners since California's boat registration law became effective in 1960.

The fee will be $3 for three years beginning January 1, 1963.

Lachlan M. Richards, Chief of the Division of Small Craft Harbors, said the boat owner can renew his registration by mailing the renewal fee and the IBM card he will receive this month to the Division of Small Craft Harbors in Sacramento.

No Tax, Rate Hike for Water Plan--Johnston

Directors of the Contra Costa Water District have adopted a master water plan for the mid-county area which will eventually provide over 43 million gallons of water to almost 400,000 customers.

The board approved the plan's several phases after Robert Johnston, treated water division manager, reported that no increase in taxes or water rates would be necessary.

The plan calls for expansion of storage facilities, pumping stations, water treatment plants and the district's pipeline network, according to a report submitted by James Montgomery Incorporated, the Southern California engineering consultant firm which submitted the plan. Phase 1 on the plan will cost an estimated $7,950,000 for district needs through 1965. The second phase, for a 10-year period, will cost about $26,552,000. The two phases involve construction of seven new underground reservoirs, new main lines, modification of a filter plant and construction of new pumping stations.

Two of the seven proposed storage facilities would be in operation by 1963. New main lines connecting these reservoirs with the Ygnacio Filter Plant, between Walnut Creek and Concord, are already under construction.

On Tuesday the district will call for bids for a $300,000 modification of the filter plant. Two new booster pumping stations to transfer treated water to new and existing reservoirs will be built under the first phase.

Costs for this portion of the project this year have been $200,000. Some $218,000 is earmarked for continued work this year.

The plan calls for eventual construction of three more pumping stations.

Division Manager Johnston explained that water revenues are expected to retire any bonds which might be required for construction of master plan projects.

The district now serves 94,000 customers in the central county area, including Concord, Clayton Valley, Ygnacio Valley and parts of Walnut Creek and Pleasant Hill.

Winter Sports Create Danger

Winter sports will lure thousands to the mountains during the next few months, but for the unwary, the trip can be troublesome and in many cases dangerous, California Highway Patrol Commissioner Bradford M. Crittenden said this week.

He offered these reminders to motorists headed for snow country:

"Always carry chains. When signs say that chains are required, you must stop and put them on. And don't remove them until you see the official

"End of chain control" signs. "Reduce speeds when driving on snow, ice or rain-slicked surfaces. "Increase following distances. From three to 12 times more distance is required to stop on icy or snow-covered roadways. "Use the brakes cautiously. Rapid but gentle pumping is the best means of stopping on a slick surface. "Make turning motions slowly and smoothly to avoid skids.

Medic Clears Date Confusion K.O. Polio

A reminder that Contra Costa will receive its Type III Sabin oral polio vaccine in early spring was issued today by Dr. Edward B. Shaw, chairman of the K.O. Polio program.

"There may be some confusion," said Dr. Shaw, "because a number of signs, printed early in our planning stages, are still posted with December 9 listed as the date for Type III immunization."

Type III oral vaccine is now under study by the United States Public Health Service to determine if it should be given to all persons of all ages.

It has already been declared safe for young people.

"The physicians sponsoring the K.O. Polio program," Dr. Shaw said, "are hoping that by the date for Type III immunization everyone, rather than merely for children 18 and under."

Get Garden Off To a Good Start

If there's one thing certain about learning to garden it is this: the proper tools and a basic plan of attack are essential. For the lack of these, many a potential gardener has been lost to the ranks.

Gardening with inadequate equipment is like painting with bad brushes—there's very little satisfaction to be had from it. Remember this, then, when you buy your first house, and make a half dozen tools part of the initial investment.

What are the basic tools of gardening? First off, you will need a spade to turn the soil, or dig a planting hole. Then comes the spading fork, which can also be used for turning soil, but is equally important for lifting bulbs and crowded clumps which need division. Third in line is the prong cultivator, which is indispensable for keeping the soil aerated around annuals and in vegetable beds.

For keeping established gardens neat, a lawn mower is the most essential item. Grass clippers or a lawn trimmer are also necessary and a rake is an absolute must. This goes without saying. When it comes to watering a lawn, a good sprinkler is like having an extra person to help. Members of the California Association of Nurserymen have a varied assortment of sprinklers, and no better investment can be made.

Hedge shears are handy not only for shearing hedges, but for keeping Ivy and other vining plants trimmed. Hand shears are not only useful in pruning roses and other shrubs, but in picking flowers as well.

It's the Berries!

Of all the native plants which grace our Golden State, none has more practical value than the colorful Christmas berry. Here is a shrub or small tree which fits readily into the garden setting.

It has handsome green foliage, white spring bloom and bright red berries in late fall. The latter are ideal for decking the halls during our holiday season.

THERE ARE many names by which you might find the California Christmas berry. Botanists call it photinia, while old friends know it as toyon or California holly. By any name, however, it is still the same fine shrub which members of the California Association of Nurserymen rank with the ceanothus as one of our two most useful natives.

Photinia, the botanical name, is derived from the Greek phoinos, which means "shining" and that is one of the first things you notice about this fine shrub. At any season, it is an evergreen mass of glossy green, saw-toothed leaves, some four inches long. These leaves make a rich background in the garden. They are spotted occasionally with bronzy tones and often with bright red leaves, which turn that way just before they drop off the shrub.

In spring, the Christmas berry is aglow with flowers. These are pink in the bud, white when they open and are borne in clusters which later become berries. In full bloom, the shrub is often completely covered with white flowers. The flowers are not spectacular, but in the manner of a pyracantha, their numbers make a fine show. They are mighty nice to have around.

IN FALL come the berries, bushfuls of them, which countless berry seekers tramp over the countryside to cut for decoration. You wonder sometimes why people go to such trouble when planting one shrub would take care of their berry needs with plenty to spare. The berries are a bright red, about the size of pyracantha berries and as mentioned above, they are borne in clusters.

There are several uses for the Christmas berry in your garden. Being dense in texture, it serves well as a screen for the property line. Left to its own, it will grow to 20 or more feet. Judicious pruning will keep it much lower, however. The California Association of Nurserymen strongly recommends against clipping the Christmas berry formally, for its beauty lies in the irregular undulating habit of growth.

You can also try Christmas berry as a specimen tree or tall shrub at the edge of a patio or spotted in the shrub border. Try pruning it up to form a small tree, opening the framework of branches to admit light to highlight the already glossy nature of the leaves.

THIS RUGGED shrub is native to many areas of California, including the unfriendly, rocky islands off the coast. It is found in the Sierra foothills and in the coast range, indicating that it will thrive in virtually any California conditions. Certainly it shares the typical native indifference to water, but at the same time, it does not resent overwatering the way many native plants do.

Plant Christmas berry in any normal soil and don't make it struggle for a start in life. That's all right for nature's garden, well as a screen for the property line. Left to its own, it will give you berry size shrubs sooner than otherwise.

Orinda Sun Friday, December 14, 1962 Page 23

Camellia Gives Great Pleasure

Could any shrub give more satisfaction than the camellia? The earliest Sasanqua varieties start blooming in October and November, soon to be followed by the more familiar japonicas and later by the huge, ruffled reticulata types.

Also, ask your nurseryman to show you the new hybrid C. saluenensis that are now on the market. All in all, you can have color from this family of shrubs for over six months of each year, and many of them are to be found this month in CAN nurseries.

Gift for Gardener? Easy! Certificate

Gardeners are the easiest of all people to please at Christmas time. They invariably welcome any special plant such as an azalea or an orchid, either of which is in bloom this month. Or, if you hesitate to pick out a gift for some other person's garden, take advantage of the growing practice of giving a nursery gift offer.

According to the California Association of Nurserymen, gift orders are fast becoming the most popular item in the trade during December.

In moderating, not in satisfying desires, lies peace.

Lilies Take on A New Look in Local Gardens

Wonderful things have happened to garden lilies in the last generation. Thanks to plant hybridists in our pacific northwest, these once common plants have become the aristocrats of our summer gardens.

Contrary to a common misconception, these elegant "bulbs" are quite easy to grow. They thrive under garden conditions when given a well-drained location, with sun or part shade and sufficient water to keep them happy. But before considering these needs, let's look at the wide variety of wonderful lilies offered by the California Association of Nurserymen.

MANY OF US recall the time when we simply went to the nursery and ordered a few "tiger" lilies for our gardens. Today, we have the choice of dozens of different types and all of them are superior to the old "tigers" we used to plant.

The new look can include lilies with trumpet blooms the size of a real trumpet, or cupsize blossoms with delicately ruffled and reflexed petals. They vary in color from creamy white to fiery orange and scarlet tones. Some blossoms are heavily spotted or marked.

Marijuana Big Factor In County Dope Arrests

A total of 85 persons were arrested for State Narcotics Law violations in Contra Costa County during 1961, according to figures just released by the State Department of Justice.

Of these, 3—or slightly over 3.5 per cent—were juveniles, the report indicates.

Exactly half of the arrests of adults made in this county involved the users of marijuana, while only 9 involved heroin and other narcotics.

About one quarter of the persons arrested were charged with the use of "dangerous drugs, and 13 persons were taken as addicts or users or for other offenses, the report shows.

OF THE 79 reported dispositions of narcotics cases following these arrests, there were 38 convictions in local or superior courts, two federal prosecutions, and 18 acquittals.

Others were sent to state hospitals and rehabilitation centers, prosecuted by other agencies or paroled.

Of the juvenile offenders in the county, charges against one were dropped, another was released with other charges pending, and the third was made a ward of the court.

TOTAL narcotic arrests in California showed a 5.5 per cent decrease in 1961 from the 1960 totals, according to Attorney General Stanley Mosk.

In the report, the Attorney General called the year of 1961

"a watermark date in the fight against the illicit narcotic traffic in our State."

"In 1961, new narcotic laws were passed and became effective, the strongest in California's history," he said.

The report further reveals that during 1961, a total of 18,190 narcotic arrests were reported in California by local, State and Federal law enforcement agencies.

The total includes both narcotics and dangerous drug arrests.

Cancer Society Offers Film on Smoking Values

"Is Smoking Worth It?" the American Cancer Society's new film on the relationship of cigarettes to lung cancer, is now available for local showing, according to Dr. Herbert Packard, vice president in charge of programming for the society's Contra Costa Branch.

The film is built around an unrehearsed discussion by four teenagers.

Kenneth, 18, began smoking five years ago because "all my friends were smoking and all the best athletes were smoking and it was definitely for reasons of social pressure that I thought it looked attractive to smoke." He claims not to be disturbed by the fact "that when I am 60 it might harm me."

MICHAEL, 17, also began smoking at age 13 but stopped. "More than anything else I wanted to turn away from the tremendous pressure on teenagers to smoke," he said, pointing out that so many attempts were made to impress upon him that smoking "is a nice habit, a mature habit" that he rebelled. Virginia, 17, enjoys smoking. She isn't impressed by adult arguments against smoking because "when they are telling you 'don't smoke' they light up a cigarette themselves."

Lisa, 18, does not smoke because she personally prefers they have strong wills."

THE FILM also includes an adult sequence in which a prominent psychologist discusses a parents "struggle and not be "stop-smoking" group therapy project with two participants.

One, a housewife, has been unable to beat the habit and feels bad about it because she wants to set a good example for her children. The other, college professor, has stopped smoking but admits it wasn't easy; that he experiences withdrawal symptoms.

The film runs 19 minutes and is in color.

Dr. Packard said that while it was developed primarily for use in the cancer society's school smoking information program, it holds fascination for viewers of every age.

Industries Pay $75 Million to Stop Pollution

Industries in the six Bay Area counties have spent $75 million to comply with regulations of the Bay Area Pollution Control District, D. J. Callaghan, the district's chief administrative officer, told directors of the Contra Costa County Development Association last week.

During the six year period, the district has spent $2,800,000 in its effort to eliminate Bay Area smog.

Callaghan said the smog problem is increasing in relation to population gains but that the Bay's air pollution problem is only one-half as bad as that of the Los Angeles basin where $24,000,000 of public funds has been spent on smog control.

CALLAGHAN SAID the district is now compiling statistical information on open burning to determine whether it should ask the legislature for misdemeanor power to cope with repeating violators.

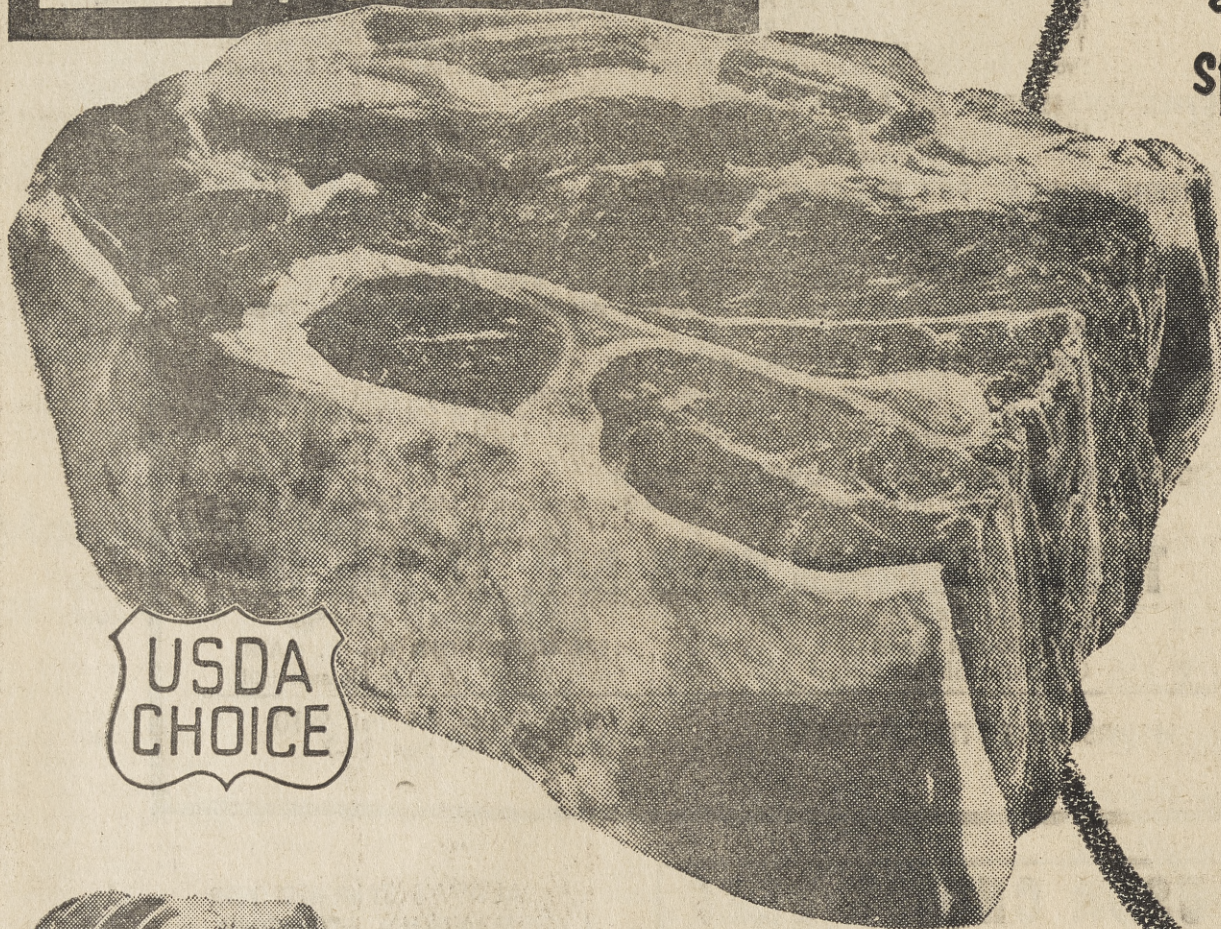

He said 80 per cent of the air contamination pollutants in the Los Angeles basin is caused by motor vehicles while the Bay Area attributes 40 per cent of its smog problem to autos.

Crankcase and exhaust devices are now being tested in the Los Angeles area, he said, and almost all new cars are equipped with control devices.

Pedregal Center Directors Will Select Chairman

The board of directors of the Pedregal Center will hold their first meeting Tuesday.

Included on the agenda of the luncheon meeting to be held at La Fonda, Lafayette, will be the selection of an acting chairman. Pedregal is a state licensed day treatment hospital and a psychiatric day therapy center, the only such one in Contra Costa or Alameda counties.

Members of the board are Reverend Nathan Bond of Walnut Creek; Henrik L. Blum, M.D., county health officer; Gaylord Fox, sociologist of Lafayette; Mrs. Edwina Spingola, secretary-manager, Lafayette Chamber of Commerce; Raymond R. Dear of Lafayette; Mrs. Frank T. Upham, public health and school nurse, Orinda; Burk Farola, guidance counselor and Dean of Boys, Las Lomas High School; Herbert C. Enos, M.D., Lafayette; Mrs. Mary Grah of Orinda and Joseph Longacre, Jr., attorney, Orinda.

'Cost of Drugs' Speech Wins Club Award

Dick Albert won the table topics award—a one minute impromptu speech at the Diablo Toastmasters Club meeting Thursday night.

Al Gregory was acting president, Bob Davis handled table topics and Ray Davies was toastmaster.

Dr. John Toth won the prepared speech contest using "Cost of Drugs" as his subject. He warned against cheap imitations by unreliable sources.

Other interesting and informative speeches were made by Mike Kaufman, Paul Price and Bob Hart. Dean Burnside made the best evaluation of Bob Hart's speech about "Pups."

Anyone interested in improving their ability to speak is cordially invited to visit a regular weekly meeting of Toastmasters. The dinner meetings start at 6:30 p.m. at the Nut Bowl Restaurant on Oak Park Boulevard, Pleasant Hill.

Camera Club Names Winners

The December competition of the Contra Costa Camera Club was judged by Pete Jowise, professional photographer and member of the Photographic Society of America.

First awards went to Ethel Christensen of Lafayette (Class AA), C. P. McVickers, Orinda (Class A) and Merle Quait, Pleasant Hill (Class B).

The club plays Santa to the county juvenile home via its annual Christmas party, today, at the Bill Sweetland's new home in Walnut Creek.

Monies contributed that evening will help say "Merry Christmas" to some lonely children, Sweetland said.

BIG DAY for Irvin Deutscher (right), developer of Concord Industrial Park, came recently when Edmund R. Campbell (left), 1106 Magnolia Lane, Lafayette, president of Royal Crown Cola, announced plans for construction of a $175,000 distribution center in the park. "Pulling the cap" to officially get things under way is Barbara Keppert, who has the title of "Miss Industrial Park."

'63 Plates Now Available for Commercial Use

New 1963 license plates are being issued this month by the Department of Motor Vehicles to limited groups of vehicle owners.

Tom Bright, director of the department, said owners of commercial trucks, trailers and other vehicles used commercially may obtain new plates in December and through February 4, 1963.

He urged owners of these vehicles to renew early and avoid the normal renewal period crowds between January 2 and February 4, 1963.

"We are authorized by law to also issue 1963 plates to persons who acquire vehicles by transfer in December," Bright said.

New cars purchased during December also are eligible for new plates if purchasers desire.

"This spares the purchaser of double transactions—one transaction when acquiring the vehicle and another during the normal renewal period next month," Bright said.

October Use Tax Portion Distributed

The October apportionment of state highway users taxes amounted to $37,136,228, a 10 per cent increase over the distribution for the same month last year, State Controller Alan Cranston reported today.

A total of $8,794,299 was apportioned among the counties. Contra Costa County's share was $189,485.08.

Only one county received more than Contra Costa for heavy rainfall and storm damage, for which the county was paid $4406.25, the report showed.

High on the list was Santa Cruz, with $5067.50.

New Recruiter Here

T/Sgt. Milton H. Dunham has been assigned to the local Air Force Recruiting Office at 2183 Concord Boulevard, Concord, replacing T/Sgt. Thurston L. Egan, who was transferred to Detachment headquarters in Oakland last June.

Sergeant Dunham will be working with T/Sgt. Kenneth R. Macklin, who has been on duty at the Concord office for the past three years.

Gospel Film Will Be Shown

The "Tony Fontane Story," a feature-length color film produced by the teen-age division of Gospel Films, will be shown tomorrow night at the Walnut Creek Recreation Center.

The film is sponsored by the Youth for Christ of Contra Costa County, will be shown at 7:30 p.m.

Tennis Club Hearing Set For Jan. 2

A public hearing on a proposed Lafayette Tennis Club will be held before the Board of Supervisors on January 2 at 2 p.m. Applicants Martin Jones and Davis Dolgin seek to establish a tennis and recreational club on a 6.85-acre parcel owned by William Barron on Pleasant Hill Road.

The property fronts on the southwest side of Pleasant Hill Road, northwest of Quandt Road, near Reliez Valley Road. THE COUNTY Planning Commission has recommended denial, by a 5-0 vote. One commissioner abstained from voting, another was absent.

Earlier the Board of Adjustment had turned down the application, 3-0.

It was appealed by the applicants, with the supervisors sending the application to the full planning commission for another public hearing.

The applicants sought to have the supervisors rule on the matter, but the motion was voted down, 3-2.

The first locomotive in New Mexico crossed the summit of Raton Pass on December 7, 1878, reports the National Automobile Club.

Meet Ellen Getman... This Week on Newell Ave.

If your sweet tooth has a craving, then the gal of the week for you to meet is Ellen Getman. A native of the Bay Area, she traveled extensively before returning to California and Walnut Creek where she is now in association with Hooper's Candies of Oakland. Ellen proudly notes that her policy to serve you with the finest candy possible is the same policy that makes the name Hooper's a matter of pride and an emblem of the most delicious candy possible to manufacture. Included in the fine line of merchandise afforded to the public are the bakery items. You can easily select a favorite from the candy-iced cakes, the flaky, tasty pies or the toothsome Danish sweet dolls and cookies. While you nibble on sweets, you can't help but appreciate the wonderful array of unusual gifts imported from many European sources. Mrs. Getman commented that all of these special delicacies are selected for beauty and appeal. "There is always something for every occasion in the shop and something to please all," she continued. "Everyone is cordially invited to visit and become acquainted with our store, Hooper's Candies, on Newell Strip," she concluded.

Fancy Light Poles to Go In Home Service District

The first residential county service area for lighting in the Orinda-Lafayette-Moraga area was unanimously approved by the County Board of Supervisors Tuesday. It will provide street lighting in the Charles Hill area at St. Hill Road (L-18).

The request was filed by James B. Symonds, president, Silverwood Development Company, Lafayette. Symonds states that the target date for installing the lights is the first of the year.

THE POLE itself is unique, according to Symonds, and the wires will be underground. Only two of this type pole has been approved by the Public Utilities Commission, said Symonds. The other is located in San Mateo County.

Silverwood's subdivision consists of 43 lots on Tahos Road.

Ten lights will be installed by Pacific Gas and Electric Company in the Silverwood development in Alamo, stated Symonds.

"A TAX sufficient to pay for such services within said area will be levied annually on all taxable property in the area," according to the county public works department.

"This type of pole and installation is on an experimental basis, but I believe that it will be adopted county-wide in the future," said Symonds.

Martinez Moved Closer: Freeway

Except for a gap now filled by one mile of congested Contra Costa Boulevard in Pleasant Hill, motorists now have a "clear shot" on State Route 21 towards the Martinez-Benicia Bridge.

An additional 4 1/4 miles of the freeway, between Willow Pass Road in Concord and Arthur Road in Martinez, opened last week.

The newly-completed portion includes a clover-leaf interchange at Arnold Industrial Highway near the old Sprigg's Corners.

The gap, which will not be filled with freeway for another year, is a section between Monument Boulevard and Willow Pass Road.

A branch from this section to Highway 24 in North Concord is also included in the "gap" contract, let this summer.

Until the gap is filled, motorists will continue to use Pleasant Hill's busy boulevard where traffic problems increased this week as preparations for a road-widening project went on. Northbound motorists leaving Pleasant Hill will be warned by signs that they should not pick up the freeway at Willow Pass Road but another mile north at Concord Avenue.

$ Million-Plus Sales Increase Reported Here

A retail sales increase of over 11 per cent was indicated last week in Walnut Creek with receipt of an advance payment of sales tax from the State Board of Equalization.

The payment covered the period of August through November 5 and amounted to $135,041.93.

According to Chamber of Commerce Manager William Francis, the payment indicates a sales volume of $13,504,193, and an increase of $1,343,400 over the same period last year.

A comparison with the 1960 period showed a sales increase of 19 per cent—over $2 million—Francis said.

According to the figures, Francis added, Walnut Creek remains the county's second largest retail trade center.

Friedenbach In Honors Effort

Kenneth J. Friedenbach, Jr. of Pleasant Hill is participating in the new honors program at the University of Santa Clara this fall. He is one of 25 top freshman students engaged in the intensive four-year program of tutorial instruction, independent reading and seminars.

The honor students were selected from a field of 100 applicants after rigorous testing and screening last spring.

Friedenbach, a mathematics major, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. K. J. Friedenbach, 102 Soule Avenue. He is a graduate of Pleasant Hill High School.

CAPPING CEREMONY is the prelude to weeks of part-time service in Kaiser Foundation Hospital for several mid-county Girl Scouts like Cathy Reeser (center) who were made nurse's aids last week. ## Storms Cost Up Over $700,000, County Reports

A little water, despite the adage, can hurt, as the County of Contra Costa has found to the tune of $700,300.

That is the amount being spent by the public works department alone to repair county roads and bridges damaged in mid-October storms.

Of the total, $154,780 is for equipment hired, $232,848 will be taken from road building projects now curtailed, and the balance will come from the department's maintenance budget, according to Ray Brown of the department.

Lighted Kitchen Can Ease Chores

The decorative assets of lighting should not be overlooked while stressing the functional. In choosing color schemes for remodeling or modernizing kitchens, it should be remembered that lighter colors reflect light while darker shades absorb it. Thus more light will be needed in a room with dark surfaces.

The trend toward decorative fixtures to supplement the general lighting in a kitchen gives full play to the imagination. The wide choice of lighting fixtures available, reflecting every period of design history, permits expression of personality.

GONE ARE the days when one overhead fixture sufficed to light a kitchen. The modern well-lighted kitchen contains a combination of two types of lighting.

The first, general or fill-in lighting, can be obtained from ceiling fixtures. The second, local or functional lighting, focused on a given area for visual tasks, should come from fixtures installed as close as possible to the work centers.

Convenience is the key word in kitchen lighting. A good level of general illumination permits one to see easily into drawers and cabinets.

Special fixtures such as fluorescent tubes placed beneath upper cabinets provide lighting over work counters where food is prepared. Recipes and labels can be read easily, ingredients can be measured accurately.

THE SINK area also needs additional lighting from directly above so that one can see properly while cleaning food and utensils.

Although many kitchens feature a window just above the sink, daylight is unreliable and much use is often made of the area at night.

The range is another place where local lighting is desirable. Being able to see down into pots and pans is important since it is the changes in color and consistency of food as it cooks that indicate when it is "done."

AN EXPERT cook demands excellent light over the range so as to observe these important changes as they occur. Precise "timing" in food preparation may be more easily achieved with good functional lighting at the range.

Even though most refrigerators have good interior illumination, the additional over-all light that comes from ceiling fixtures is most helpful.

Ranunculus Deserve Top Garden Billing

Ranunculus should be at the top of your planting list this month and next. CAN nurserymen offer both the tuberous bulbs of mature plants and the new, flat-grown seedlings, which cost less, but produce relatively fewer blooms the first year.

If marauding birds have eaten your newly sprouted ranunculus in past years, try planting the seedling plants, since they are already past the stage of attraction for birds. If you choose the tubers, soak them overnight before planting them out.

This is not essential, but seems to speed the sprouting process and is a practice recommended by most growers. Set the tubers with the "legs" down, about two inches deep.

At the same time you might try planting the similar anemones, which produce some rich blue colors lacking in the ranunculus family.

Dwarf Citrus Bear Colorful Crops Now

Many dwarf citrus trees are bearing their colorful crops this month. If you visit a California Association of Nurserymen show yard, you will notice especially some of the navel oranges—Washington and Robertson navel oranges—as well as Mandarins, Meyer lemons and Rangpur limes.

These wonderful miniatures make fine ornamental shrubs for tubs, as well as producing market-size fruit of excellent quality. Landscapers love to use them, and you will, too.

Do You Neglect Your Poinsettia?

Poinsettias are victims of neglect each year at Christmas time. Thousands of people buy them for the holiday and throw them out when the bloom has faded. According to the California Association of Nurserymen, poinsettias can be saved for future bloom in the garden and all they need is planting out sometime between January 1 and April 1.

Letting them dry out will not hurt after bloom has gone, so there's no need to rush them into the ground. Pick a warm, sunny spot, protected from frost and cut the plant back at planting time.

Do You Really Appreciate Salt?

Let salt be your private treasure just a few. A guest spills wine on your white damask tablecloth. There's no need to panic. Just cover the stain immediately with table salt and go on with the dinner. Rinse out later.

"Few people appreciate salt's many household uses," A. W. Werry, technical director for the Leslie Salt Co., says. "Here shade for his Christmas cards.

Blot it as quickly as possible, about an hour, then rinse off with clear water. What about the skillet of grease that catches fire? "Sprinkle a handful of salt on the flames while someone else dials the fire department," Werry advised. "If the flames haven't subsided by the time the fire department is on the line have them come—quick."

Green Thumb Is Easy to Buy for

Are you stumped for a gift to give that special friend? If he gardens, there's no problem at all. Simply check with his wife (or husband) and find out what in the garden world he needs most.

It could be an exotic plant, or it could be a new lawn sprinkler, might really like.

Rose Season Will Soon Be Here

Bareroot season arrives this month, and with it a carload of new and wonderful roses. Have you room for some of them, and if not, isn't it time to make a room? One or more of your old roses may have outlived its novelty or failed to produce the bloom you prepared soil. And in case you wonder what's new, check in with your local nurseryman.
